INTERESTING FROM WASHINGTON.

Failure of the Committee of Conference to Agree—An Entirely New Proposition to be Submitted—The El Paso and Fort Yuma Wagon Road—Officers Assigned to the Macedonia—Amin Bey, &c.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Monday, April 19.

According to promise, Mr. GREEN submitted several propositions of compromise to the Conference Committee this morning. Among them it was proposed to strike out of the Senate bill the Pugh Proviso, and insert in the preamble a declaration, in the language of the Bill of Rights, that the people have the power to change their form of Government. He also intimated that he would be willing to pass an act simply declairing Kansas to be a State in the Union, and leaving to the people to choose between the Constitutions. None of the propositions were agreed to.

To-morrow Mr. ENGLISH will bring forward a plan of his own, on an entirely new plan of action. The bill will admit Kansas as in the Crittenden substitute, and resubmit the Constitution on new grounds altogether. The ordinance attached to the Constitution will be amended as in the Senate bill, and then the assumption will be that the Constitution thus altered is not what the people of Kansas made it and that they have no application before Congress for admission in that shape. The preamble of the House bill will accordingly be stricken out, and it will then recite that the people of Kansas shall vote whether they will come in with the amended ordinance, and then the submission of the Constitution will be attained without reference to the Slavery question. The bill will contain an enabling act, to operate as in the Montgomery bill, if the Constitution is rejected.

Mr. ENGLISH argues with force that Congress having altered the Constitution by their amending the ordinance, it is highly proper that the submission should take place on that ground. The Democrats can yield this, because it ignores previous arguments for a resubmission, and there is strong reason to believe that the proposition will be adopted by the Committee. If so, it will pass Congress, and that will be the end of it. It is understood that STEPHENS is in favor of ENGLISH's plan. The Committee will report to-morrow, if possible.

Intelligence received here from Arizona represents the progress of the wagon-road between El Paso and Fort Yuma as extremely slow. The appropriation of $200,000 is three-fourths expended, and the road is little more than fairly begun.

The State Department has just received a letter from Mr. BROWN, of the American Legation at Constantinople, inclosing a note from the Turkish Vizier, testifying to the official character of AMIN BEY's visit here in 1850.

There is little change here of importance. The Pacific Railroad Committee will meet on Wednesday; but since the Senate has postponed the subject, it is not expected that much will be done.

The Committee on Foreign Affairs are not unanimous in favor of reporting to abrogate the Clayton Bulwer Treaty. RITCHIE will either make a minority report, or speak against it.

Gen. HARNEY left here this evening for Fort Leavenworth.

The following officers are ordered to the sloop-of-war Macedonia, preparing at Boston for the Mediterranean: Captain—H. P. LEVY; Lieutenants—A. D. Harrel, J. R. Morgan, W. E. Hopkins, F. A. Roe and O. C. Badger; Surgeon—James C. Palmer; Passed Assistant Surgeon—Thomas B. Steele; Assistant Surgeon—Charles Lowndes, Jr.; Purser—J. Van B. Bleecker.

Capt. JOHN RUDD has been ordered to the command of the Washington Navy Yard from the 16th of May next, vice Com. LAVALETTE, who is to command the Mediterranean squadron.

Commander E. G. TILTON has been ordered on duty on the Lighthouse Board vice Capt. SAMUEL BARRON, who takes command of the steam-frigate Wabash.

Purser TAYLOR has been ordered to the Receiving Ship at Boston, in place of BLEECKER, and Purser BLEECKER has been ordered to the Wabash. O.

[FROM THE REPORTER FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

WASHINGTON, Monday, April 19.

The House Committee on Foreign Affairs this morning directed Mr. CLINGMAN, its Chairman, to report a resolution abrogating the Clayton-Bulwer Treaty, condemning it both in its American as well as its British construction, and authorizing the President to take immediate steps for its abrogation.

The report that the Senate Committee on Commerce have unanimously agreed to report against all appropriations for river and harbor improvements, is incorrect. Mr. HAMLIN did not agree to the proposition.

The Joint Committee of Conference on the Kansas bill met this morning, all the members being present. Mr. GREEN, on behalf of the majority of the Senate Committee, submitted several proposed modifications of the Senate bill, none of which proved acceptable to the House Committee. Propositions were then solicited from the House Committee. Mr. ENGLISH responded that at the next meeting he would submit a new bill, the precise character of which has not transpired, but it is understood to be on a new line, proposing a substitute for the Lecompton ordinance, and that the question of admission under the Lecompton Constitution be referred to a fair vote of the people of Kansas at an early day;—if the majority vote for it, Kansas to come into the Union at once under the President's proclamation; if against it, then the bill provides for the formation of a new Constitution, whenever the population there equals the number required for a member in the United States House of Representatives.

The Committee adjourned till to-morrow. There is some reason to believe that Mr. ENGLISH's bill will be agreed to in conference, and passed by both Houses.

The Senate to-day confirmed JOHN CADWALLEDER as Judge of the Eastern District Court for Pennsylvania, vice KANE, deceased, and Mr. NORTON, of Nebraska, as Secretary of that Territory.

The Senate also, after discussion, confirmed Messrs. TURNER, KIPP and CRAIG, as Lieutenants of the Army. These nominations have been pending since the commencement of the session.

The Secretary of the Treasury, on an appeal, has decided that metal and silk guitar strings, the former being the component material of chief value, are liable to a duty of 24 per cent., and the following named articles at 15: Pulu, prepared from the fibre of a plant, for beds, cushions and mattresses; white rope, or hemp reduced to pulp for manufacturing paper; roofing felt, and sulphate of ammonia.

A letter has been received at the State Department from our Chargé d'Affaires at Constantinople inclosing one to him from the Grand Vizier, showing that AMIN BEY was accredited as an agent to this Government, thus setting at rest all doubts in relation to that subject.

A letter from Lieut. IVES, dated 19th February, states that he had ascended above the Mohave villages on the Colorado River of the West, and had not been molested by the Indians who have heretofore been troublesome. The surveys were progressing finely.

XXXVth CONGRESS------First Session.

SENATE....WASHINGTON, Monday, April 19.

The Secretary of War transmitted, in reply to a recent resolution, information of the Utah contracts, entered into without the special authorization of Congress.

Mr. SLIDELL presented memorials from citizens of New-Orleans, and from the Chamber of Commerce of that city, asking the Government to aid the Collins steamers; also, to aid the steamers between New-Orleans and Bordeaux.

Mr. BIGLER presented similar memorials from Philadelphia to say that they wished the matter investigated and settled as soon as possible.

Mr. HOUSTON announced that he did not wish to bring up his Mexican Protectorate resolution to-day, and on motion of Mr. HUNTER the Deficiency bill was considered.

Mr. MASON, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, submitted a bill for the relief of the claimants in the case of the private brig-of-war General Armstrong, accompanied by a report.

A request by Mr. TRUMBULL that the Secretary be directed to furnish a certified copy of the resolution and evidence in the Indiana contested election case, gave an opportunity to Messrs. BRIGHT and FITCH.

The section respecting extra allowances to the officers of the House was debated, but not stricken out as the Committee recommended.

Mr. MASON offered a resolution, which was adopted, calling on the Secretary of the Navy for information respecting the Susquehanna at Jamaica, with the view of considering whether the courtesy of the British requires an acknowledgment.

Mr. HALE spoke in support of his amendment, when the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

WASHINGTON, Monday, April 19.

The House went into Committee on the Washington Police bill.

The bill was debated and amended, but no final action taken.

Messrs. FLORENCE, PHILLIPS and LANDY presented memorials of citizens of Philadelphia for the establishment of an oceanic steam mail route between Philadelphia and Southampton, England.

Mr. FLORENCE, of Pennsylvania, gave notice of the introduction of a bill to establish certain ocean post-routes between the United States and Europe, and to regulate the transportation of the mails, and reduce the expenses thereof. Adjourned.

Excitement among the Navy Officers—The Mediterranean Squadron—The Conference Committee—Another to be asked for, &c.

Correspondence of the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Sunday, April 18, 1858.

The Navy Department has been fairly besieged by the crowd of Navy Officers who put in applications to be ordered to the Mediterranean in the Macedonia and Wabash,—a highly-prized and coveted service; and the fortunate ones who have been already ordered to the Wabash, are the envy of all their competitors. A cruise in the Mediterranean, involving as it does an opportunity to enjoy the gay society and other piquante things of Southern Europe, is the acme of a Naval Officer's ambition, next to promotion in the service; and every external and internal influence has accordingly been brought to bear to get the assignment of that agreeable duty. The officers of the Susquehanna, transferred from the gay scenes which accompanied the laying of the Atlantic Telegraph cable, in England, to the stagnant lagoons of San Juan, remembered keenly the pleasures of the service in the Mediterranean, when Purser RITTENHOUSE was detached from that vessel to come here and log-roll to get her ordered back upon that station. I understand Purser R. has so far accomplished his object as to have permission to consult PETER COOPER, Esq., as to the necessity of having the Susquehanna assist the Niagara in laying down the Telegraph Cable, with the presumed understanding that if the Telegraph Company want her assistance she may be ordered on that duty. The rush upon Secretary TOUCEY is not yet over, since the complement of the Macedonia is still to be made out; I believe, however, that it is safe to say that her purser will be Purser BLEECKER, now on shore duty at the Boston Navy-Yard. The assignment of Com. LAVALETTE as flag-officer of the squadron has greatly disappointed Com. SHUBRICK, of the Light-House Board, who has not been so fortunate as one of his colleagues of that Board, Capt. SAMUEL BARRON, assigned to the command of the Wabash. I believe there is a bit of a row,—genteel, of course,—with reference to the assignment of Lieut. CORBIN to the Wabash.

The Secretary of the Navy, in reply to the resolution of the Senate of April 8, has communicated to that body a letter, giving an account of the report of Lieut. JOHN ROGERS, commander of the United States Exploring Expedition to the North Pacific Ocean and China Seas, in the years 1853, '54, '55 and '56, and of Captain PAGE, of the United States Naval Expedition for the exploration of the La Plata River. The report of the latter was included in that of the Secretary of the Navy, to the President, laid before Congress at the beginning of the session, and not printed in a separate shape. The report of Lieut. ROGERS is going on under the supervision of that officer, a number of charts and maps having been already engraved, and a much larger number being either in the engraver's hands or in process of reduction for engraving. The collections on Natural History made by the expedition are also being arranged and classified. The Secretary finds his authority for carrying on the work in the acts making appropriations for the naval service, Aug. 16, 1856, and in an act March 3, 1857, making a special appropriation.

It is said, though with what reason I cannot certify, that it was not the expectation of the Administration Party to effect any agreement between the two Houses of Congress by means of this first Committee of Conference, but that they intended merely to go through the forms of a consultation with this one, and only come to a climax with another, to be subsequently raised and differently constituted. I have failed to discover the point of this arrangement, but it has been given out that a second Committee will be asked for, and composed, if granted, of more malleable material than the present one; and it is hoped that then something will be done. It is not apparent, however, what real difference the composition of a Committee would make. The difficulties of a compromise are inherent in the subject, far more than they can be in the managers of a Conference. If, on the one hand, the Administration yield too much, the South will not follow the Administration; and if on the other hand, the Anti-Lecomptonites evince too liberal a spirit, the votes to sustain it are not to be found in the House. There appears to be but these alternatives:

1. The Lecompton Constitution "straight," as in the Senate plan.
2. The Lecompton Constitution with the clause of submission.
3. A plan which ignores the Lecompton Constitution altogether.

It is believed that no doctoring can make the first proposition acceptable to a majority of the House of Representatives. It is calculated that no one of those Anti-Lecompton Democrats who voted for the Committee of Conference, except possibly Mr. ENGLISH, could be induced to vote for it by any amendments short of the submission clause, which annihilates it entirely, and converts it into the second proposition stated above. In order to pass this, votes must be gained from the Administration side. But it cannot be made acceptable to enough of that party to stamp it with the character of an Administration measure, even as a compromise. The third plan alone remains, and concerning the probability of such a one being adopted, every reader of the TIMES is as well informed as any one here. The proposition of Senator GREEN, the purport of which you will have by the time this letter is printed, probably results solely from the necessity that the appearance of an attempt to compromise should be made; for it was not until Mr. ENGLISH, on the part of the House Committee, announced that they would report back, without delay, unless some proposition come from the Senate managers, that Mr. GREEN come forward with the promise of one, which it is likely he had not himself a distinct notion of when he promised it, on Monday.

It is not improbable that, if thought to be necessary in order to forestall the rumored design of getting up a new Committee, more favorably composed for the Lecomptonites, that Mr. MONTGOMERY may be put forward to move the Committee, and thus render it a parliamentary necessity that it should be constituted with him as Chairman, and another Republican to give his views the preponderance upon it. The difficulty about this would be, however, that of the two members rising at once, the Speaker may give the floor to whoever may have been selected to move the new Committee. But it is needless to speculate further upon a mere rumor.

There has been some late correspondence between Gen CASS and Lord NAPIER on the Central American affairs, of unascertained purport. It seems to indicate, however, that OUSELEY has not entirely supplanted NAPIER, even on the supposed subject of his special mission. O.

IMPORTANT FROM ALBANY.

Final Adjournment of the Legislature.

CLOSING SCENES.

NEW-YORK LEGISLATURE.

SENATE....ALBANY, Monday, April 19.

The Senate amended the resolution to adjourn by naming 4 P. M. this day.

Mr. DIVEN introduced a bill to repeal the law incorporating the People's Loan and Relief Company, which passed last week, and the same was read a third time and passed by a unanimous vote.

Mr. NOXON introduced a bill to amend the law relative to the half-mill tax for the completion of the Canals, increasing it to a three-quarter mill-tax, instructing the Canal Board to effect the $500,000 loan authorized last year, and loaning $600,000 from the general fund in anticipation of the three-quarter-mil tax; the tax and the latter loan to be used for the completion of the Canals.

The bill was considered in Committee of the Whole, progress reported, and the bill referred to a Committee of five to report complete.

The Committee named consists of Messrs. Wadsworth, Noxon, Johnson, Schell and Diven.

The Senate then took a recess till 12 M.

On reassembling of the Senate,

Mr. BRANDRETH introduced a bill to repeal the law of 1851, taking the tolls off certain railroads.

Mr. BRANDRETH said in the event of the failure of the Canal bill he should press the bill, when, at his request, it was laid on the table.

The Assembly bill to amend the Revised Statutes relative to the recovery of lands by summary process was killed.

Recess till 3½ P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Canal bill was considered in Committee of the Whole, reported to the Senate, and read a third time and lost, as follows:

AYES—Messrs. Ames, Darling Diven, Doherty, Halsted, Hubbell, Noxon, Patterson, Schell, Wadsworth—10.
NAYS—Messrs. Frandreth, Burhans, Ely, Foote, Laflin, Mandeville, Pratt, Sloan, Spinola, Stow, Truman, J. D. Willard, Williams—13.

The Senate passed a concurrent resolution to adjourn at 10 o'clock this evening, and then took a recess until 8 o'clock.

ASSEMBLY....ALBANY, Monday, April 19.

When the Assembly met this morning several efforts were made to lay the order of business on the table, in order to reach the Assembly bills.

The roll was called and 73 members were found to be present.

The Senate bills for the relief of the Great Western Turnpike Road Company, and to authorize Boards of Supervisors to correct assessments in certain cases, was passed.

A concurrent resolution to adjourn at 4 P. M. to-day, was received and gave rise to another heated debate.

The Speaker took the floor and announced he had perfected a bill which he proposed to submit to the House, and which he supposed would meet the support of the majority. It would be introduced to-day in the Senate. It was to raise the half-mill tax to a three-quarter mill tax; to borrow $500,000 for the interest on the canal debt, and $600,000 under the Constitution, and to apply the latter, with the three-quarter-mill tax, to the completion of all the canals to the capacity of six feet of water throughout their entire lengths. For this he urged the continuance of the session of the Legislature.

After debate the resolution was amended so as to adjourn finally at 5 P. M., to-morrow, and returned to the Senate.

Mr. WAGER immediately moved to adjourn until 5 P. M. to-morrow, but the resolution was ruled out of order.

An attempt was then made to reconsider the vote on the Averill Ore Bed bill, but it failed.

The resolution fixing the final adjournment of the Legislature at 5 o'clock to-morrow afternoon here came from the Senate with the message that they had concurred.

After a recess the canal bill was reported complete and ordered to be printed immediately.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Mr. MCNETT rose to a question of privilege. The paper called the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser had accused the Railroad Committee, of which he (Mr MCNETT) was Chairman, of attempting by fraud to get through the Assembly an amendment to the bill respecting the railroad dime law, giving the Central Road the privilege of charging two and one-eighth per cent. per mile way fare. The statement was untrue. He had notified the friends of the bill that the amendment before it was reported to the House. He declared the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser to be a paper now without any responsible editorial head, and seemed to entertain a very light opinion of its merits.

Mr. HUTCHINSON confirmed the statement that information had been given by Mr. MCNETT to the friends of the bill, that an amendment was made. He had censured the Committee for interpolating so offensive an amendment, and also for mutilating the Railroad Pass bill.

Mr. DAYTON also rose to a question of privilege. The report in the New-York papers of the proceedings of Saturday did him injustice. He had never refused to obey an order of the Speaker to take his seat. He appealed to the House to say whether he was not in order at the time when he was called to order by the Speaker. He was speaking on a privileged question, and had a right to take a wide range in discussion; but when called to order, improperly as he held, although irritated at the time, he had taken his seat.

The bill to repeal the Loan and Relief Society bill, passed this session, was ordered to be referred with power to report complete forthwith.

The bill relative to grants of land under water in New-York was passed.

The bill constituting the husband and wife the ultimate heirs, each of the other, was lost.

The bill to amend the Brooklyn Water act was passed.

The Senate sent down a joint resolution to suspend the twenty-first rule to permit the reading of bills introduced since the 21st of March, the object being to reach the bill to repeal the Loan and Trust Company bill. Objected to.

A joint resolution to adjourn sine die at 10 o'clock to-night was then received from the Senate.

Mr. BAKER moved to insert 9 o'clock.

Mr. FULLERTON moved 5 P. M. to-morrow.

Mr. WALFORD favored an adjournment at the earliest possible moment, as it was evident that influences were at work to defeat any measures for the practical completion of the canals. It had been charged that this House was controlled by contractors. There was another influence at work up stairs—a monster railroad influence—which drowned the voice of the people as heard at the last election.

Mr. HALL said that he was as anxious as any man to return to his home, but that he did not feel at liberty to vote for any measure of adjournment while a hope remained of the adoption of any measures for the completion of the Canals. The people demand that the public works shall be finished. Though he lived in a section remote from the Canals, he favored their enlargement sincerely, and he had hoped the measures seeking aid from the railroads would have been adopted. He read a proposition, which he had intended to have submitted to the House, having for its object the completion of the public works.

Mr. THOMAS JONES, Jr., denounced the loan policy. If a direct tax had been proposed it would have succeeded. He favored the speedy adjournment of the Legislature, and read a bill which he had intended to introduce, giving a Committee, not of a political character, charge of the public works.

Mr. ADAMS spoke warmly in favor of the American policy, as introduced during the session. Early in the session the gentlemen from New-York as the "red horse." He believed the "red horse" had shown more willingness to work than any other during the session.

Mr. HAGERTY rose to a point of order, saying there was no horse before the House.

A response—"No; but plenty of jackasses."

Mr ADAMS resumed. The Americans had introduced measures for the completion of the public works and the purification of the ballot, all of which have been voted down. The responsibility of the defeat of the enlargement of the Canals would attach where it belonged, to the Democratic Party. They had introduced measures only as a blind, with the intention to betray the interest of the canals at last.

Mr. BAKER spoke warmly against the course of the Democratic Party. He charged that the railroad influence had been at work to rule the action of the Democratic members. [Cheers and hisses.]

Mr. BARKER said the gentleman from Erie (MCNETT) might hiss if he pleased, but in November he would hear hissing of scorn from a betrayed people. He regretted to find the gentlemen from New-York and Buffalo—children of the canals—steadily opposing the public works. Let them now complete the work begun and yield the canals into the hands of the railroad corporations. He justified and applauded the course of the Americans on the floor who had shown themselves consistent friends of the canals in all their action during this session.

Mr. MCNETT spoke in defence of the Democrats on the floor, and denounced Mr. BAKER as a demagogue, who for political purposes always alluded to the November election and the voice of the people.

Mr. BAKER rose to a point of order. He had not alluded to Mr. MCNETT, except to upbraid him for hissing. A man who would be low enough to do that in a legislative assembly, should be ready to take accusations of this character as appropriate to himself.

Mr. MCNETT—The gentleman from Montgomery is a nice man to bring charges of railroad influence against others. I charge him with treachery to the Canals, and with being closeted daily in secret with the Central Railroad agents while on the floor pretending to be the earnest friend of the Canals.

Mr. BAKER—I denounce the statement a base falsehood, and charge the gentleman with knowing it was a falsehood when he uttered it.

Mr. MCNETT reiterated the charge, and denounced Mr. BAKER as treacherous and playing false with the friends of the Canals. He declared himself to be friendly to the Canals, while opposed to oppression and injustice to the railroads or any other private interest.

The Speaker here declared he would confine the debate to the question of adjournment. The spirit of the house was evidently bad, and he regretted the debate had been allowed so wide a range.

Mr. HUTCHINSON proceeded to speak, but was repeatedly called to order.

Mr. DAYTON also spoke, but whenever wandering from from the direct question of adjournment, was called to order, the House appearing resolved to support the order of the Speaker.

Cries of "Question!" "Question!" now arose.

Mr. LANING moved that the previous question was not in order in a privileged resolution.

Mr. DURYEA moved to postpone for one hour the consideration of the resolution.

Ruled out of order.

Mr. BARNES and M.. ENOS spoke briefly to the question amid much confusion, repeated calls to order, and loud cries of "question," "question."

Mr. VAN VALKENBURGH stated he had voted against adjournment on Saturday in the hope that some plan would be agreed upon for the prosecution and completion of the work for enlarging the Canals. It was evident now that nothing could be adopted this session. He, therefore, favored the speedy adjournment of the Legislature.

After remarks from Mr. LYNCH, the question was put on a motion to amend the resolution by inserting 5 P. M. to-morrow. Lost.

[Although the Legislature adjourned at 10 o'clock P. M., we do not receive the conclusion of the proceedings in time for our first edition.]

CHICAGO, Monday, April 19.

AUCTION OF UNCLAIMED PROPERTY.—The first auction sale of unclaimed property, under the management of C. J. WARREN, Property Clerk of the Metropolitan Police, was held on Saturday, A. J. BLEECKER, SON & Co., auctioneers. No goods were sold but such as were in custody and unclaimed before November, 1857, yet about 250 lots were sold for the round sum of $525. If we add to this the proceeds of the perishable articles sold in November, the amount will be very nearly six hundred dollars. Mr. WARREN has also now in his possession other property that will probably never have any lawful claimant, and will have to be sold in a few months, estimated to be worth more than one thousand dollars. This will also, when sold, be appropriated to the "Widows and Orphans' Fund."

At the office of the Comptroller we learn that for several years before the Metropolitan Police was established, there was paid into the Treasury from this sale of unclaimed property, by the Chief of Police, less than $325, and from all the Police Courts, less than $60. These statements are certainly suggestive.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE ARAGO.

The steamship Arago, from Southampton on the 7th April, arrived here about 1 o'clock this morning, after a passage of 12 days and 6 hours from Cowes, bringing 128 passengers.

The lateness of the hour at which she arrived prevents the possibility of giving in our First edition more than the bare announcement of her arrival.

The Littles Murder Trial—The Decision on Medical Testimony.

The Rochester Union publishes full reports of the trial of IRA STOUT, at Rochester, from which we copy. On Friday afternoon Coroner QUIN was cross-examined. HENRY B. HAPGOOD was sworn, and testified to the recognition and examination of the body of Mr. LITTLES, confirming the evidence of the Coroner. Dr. G. W. AVERY testified that the wounds on the skull must have been produced by a pretty heavy instrument; a heavy cane, or a medium-sized cane, with a strong arm, might have made them; they were certainly made by more than one blow, unless the instrument had two projecting heads or points; the other cuts were clean cuts, and were apparently made by a different instrument; these six wounds would seem to have been made by a forked instrument; it must have been an instrument of some weight, or it would not have fractured the skull, as it is clear that the fracture over the left eye was made by the same blow which gave the wound; should think the instrument must have been small—perhaps an inch in diameter.

Dr. AVERY was one of the physicians sent to examine the person of the prisoner. The objection to his giving evidence on this point occasioned the following discussion:

Counsel for prisoner said he thought his objection should be sustained, and then read from the statutes in relation to physicians disclosing what they learn of a patient by professional examination. He went on to say that these physicians went to the jail to see him as professional men, and were so received by the prisoner, who was suffering from pain, and supposed that they came as friends. They did not advise him that they came to obtain testimony to be used against him before the Coroner's Jury. He thought that the physicians went reluctantly to make the examination. He said this was the first instance but one in which a Coroner had sent a physician to a prisoner to make a personal examination, and the exception was the case of Coroner CONNERY, in New-York, where Mrs. CUNNINGHAM was examined and nothing found. He contended that the person of the prisoner was sacred to him, and whatever a physician might learn of him professionally could not be revealed in evidence.

The District Attorney contended that the relation of physician and patient must be established to make the spirit of the statute applicable to this case—he thought there was not the shadow of a foundation for the objection.

The Court asked the witness if he prescribed for the prisoner? He answered that he did not. The Court said it would not decide this question now, but Judge WELLS said the confidential relation of physician and patient must be fully established to make the statute applicable.

Mr. Pomeroy—The relation demanded was established. The prisoner was in custody and could not select his own physician; he was entirely under the control of the officers who sent the physician to him; he could not refuse the demand of the physicians or the officer who sent them; the information thus obtained was therefore forced from him, and hence it would not be used against him; had he been traveling in the streets a free man, the case might have been different.

Mr. Perry—This party was in custody and was not allowed to see any person—he was cut off from the world, and had not the power to establish the relation contemplated by the statute toward any physician other than that he did establish in receiving these physicians.

The Court adjourned.

On Saturday, Dr. LANGWORTHY was sworn, and the argument of the previous day was resumed; and the Court rendered the decision noticed yesterday.

Judge WELLS said if it was shown that the prisoner received these physicians as agents of the Coroner to procure testimony, the prosecution would be entitled to produce such testimony on the trial, but if he did not receive them as such, but as physicians who came to advise him professionally, then it was another matter, and one for the Court to consider with a view to the statute recognizing a confidential relation between physician and patient.

The decision of the Court upon the issue was then announced by Judge WELLS, who said the Court had been anxious to hear all that could be said or proven on this preliminary question whether Doctors AVERY and MONTGOMERY, who called upon the prisoner at the jail, should be allowed to testify as to what they learned from the prisoner in the jail. They regarded the question as one of considerable importance—it was possible that the whole case might turn upon it, and they had therefore heard all that was said.

Aside from the statute there was no ground for excluding the evidence offered. Before this statute was enacted, attorneys and counsellors were alone permitted to hold such relations to clients as debarred them giving testimony in certain cases. The Legislature extended the provisions of the act to other professional men, including physicians and surgeons.

It appeared that these witnesses were duly authorized to practice—this was here proven. Another requirement of the statute was, that they and the prisoner should hold the relation of patient and physician, or surgeon, or something equivalent thereto, to exclude them from giving testimony. The Judge read the statute, and said that according to the strict letter there were several things wanting. The prisoner was perhaps not their patient, in the strict sense of the statute—yet they attended him in a professional character, though it appears that they did not go to prescribe in point of fact.

We must give the statute a true and benign application, and such a one would include this case, if the prisoner had reason to suppose that he was disclosing his situation to men holding to him the relation of physicians. It was a remedial statute, and must therefore be liberally construed. Suppose a man to be lodged in jail and visited by another who pretended to be an attorney, and the man so visited was led to believe he was such, and under that belief should make disclosures—lay open his case to him—such a person would not be permitted to testify against him, and such testimony surreptitiously obtained could not be admitted. That would be a fraud, which this is not, of course, but the cases are analagous so far as the person visited understood the object of the visit.

There was a difference of opinion in the minds of the Court on this question, whether the prisoner regarded these men visiting him as physicians—some were clearer about it than others, and one dissents from the conclusion of the majority, who think the prisoner should have a liberal construction of the law. They think the prisoner had reason to believe that these physicians came to him to administer for his relief, and therefore the District-Attorney is not at liberty to prove by them the condition in which they found him. This might, however, be proven by others, if such were present, who were not medical men.

Judge WELLS said that himself and Judge MUNGER had written opinions on the question.

Sea and Ship News.

FOR CALIFORNIA.—The steamship Philadelphia, Captain HARRISON, left at 2 o'clock on Saturday with a large number of California passengers, via Havana. The steamship Star of the West, Capt. GRAY, will leave at 2 o'clock this afternoon, with the remainder of the passengers and the mails. Both companies meet at Panama, and proceed thence by the steamer John L. Stephens. There are large numbers of persons in town on their way to California, most of them being from New-England. Many are from Maine and New-Hampshire. From Bucksport, Me., alone, there are ten, and from Phillips, Me., five. Many of those now going out are old Californians, returning to the scene of familiar labors, while others are trying their fortunes for the first time. Outside dealers in California tickets are improving the occasion, and cases of swindling are common.

The efforts at the mail office to protect people against extortionate charges for tickets have been very much hindered lately by a new device of the sharpers, to which the meaner class of countrymen have become parties. Finding it difficult to procure tickets in person they hire countrymen for five or ten dollars each to apply for tickets for fictitious passengers, which they hand over to the bogus dealers, who furnish the money, and keep a sharp watch upon the countrymen until they get the tickets in their possession.

SHIPWRECK AND LOSS OF LIFE.—The following is from the Galveston Civilian of Tuesday, April 6:

"The brig Perseverance, Capt. ROBERTS, arrived yesterday evening from New-Orleans, having encountered heavy gales on the 30th and 31st March and 1st of April. She lost her foresail, but suffered no other material damage.

The Perseverance fell in, April 3, with the wreck of schooner Sarah Bartlett, from Tuspan to Sabine, lat. 28° 30' West, lon. 93° 37'. The Sarah Bartlett had capsized in a gale five days previous. The Perseverance took from the wreck a boy named JAMES VAN HORN, from New-Orleans, and a sailor known as Charley, in a state of extreme exhaustion, the last named deranged. They had clung to the wreck ever since the accident. Capt. SANDERS and four men were lost.

The wreck was sunk to the rails. The vessel after capsizing lost her masts when she partially righted, though full of water, and with the loss of her cabin.

She had specie on board, but though divers were sent down from the Perseverance none of it could be found. It is supposed to have been lost with the cabin. The survivors stated the amount of specie at $30,000, but this is more than she would probably have carried in the trade in which she was engaged."

The New-Orleans Crescent says: "The schooner Sarah Bartlett was a new vessel, and was owned by Captain SANDERS, whose wife resides in this city. The boy JAMES VAN HORN is about 13 years of age, and is a son of Mr. T. D. VAN HORN, of this office."

The boy states that the sailor in his delirium attempted to throw him overboard, and that he managed to tie the madman fast with a bit of rope. He himself drank sea water, and appears to think that it strengthened his endurance. 'Drinking salt water like a mountain stream' was probably what drove the poor sailor out of his wits, as it is said to have that effect."

THE TWO EXTREMES.—The St. Louis Democrat has the following paragraph, upon the arrival of Col. BENTON's remains in that city:

"By its side was the little coffin containing the body of the Statesman's grandchild, MCDOWELL JONES. Each body was inclosed in an air-tight zinc case, which was laid within a mahogany coffin. A lid was raised so as to allow friends to look through a glass on the faces of the dead. The face of the Great Missourian wore that expression of majestic placidity which was habitual to him in life. The lips were slightly open, the eyes closed, and every lineament in the face in a state of repose that indicated how gentle and peaceful had been the end of the veteran's stormy life. There was no discoloration or wrinkle to be seen, and the presence of death was visible only in the closed eyelids, and the cold, white, marble-like appearance of the features. The grandchild lay as sweetly as though only sleeping, with its little head, covered with golden hair, nestling amid white hyacinths and early Spring flowers, whose purity was typical of its own young spirit."

HEALTH OF CHARLES SUMNER.—Our Washington correspondent writes as follows in a letter just received, in regard to the health of Mr. SUMNER:

"Don't be alarmed by the reports in regard to Mr. SUMNER now afloat in the papers. He has been slightly indisposed, but is about as well now as when he reached here two weeks since. On last Wednesday, while in the Congressional Library, he was notified that the Senate was about voting on the admission of Minnesota, when he walked rather fast from the Library to the Senate, reaching his seat in time to vote. The next morning he was very lame, and very much exhausted. The sudden effort and the excitement was too much for him, and he felt pain for several days in his back, and by a slight pressure on his brain; but it was not sufficient to stop his usual reading, writing or exercise, but enough for the moment to be very uncomfortable. It has now in a great measure disappeared. He voted against Lecompton in the Senate. But the Senator accepts it as a warning against premature attention to much business. It may be the means of preventing a much more serious indisposition.—Boston Traveler.

VIOLATION OF THE NEUTRALITY LAWS.—IMPORTANT ARREST.—United States Deputy Marshal LEVI H. WILLIAMS yesterday morning arrested two Germans, named respectively, JOHN ZIMMERMAN and JOSEPH THURINGER, charged with enlisting, or in retaining with the intention to enlist, within the limits of the United States, soldiers for the service of Her Majesty. They were brought before United States Commissioner CONKLING. Her Britannic Majesty's Consul, Mr. DONAHOE, in an official note addressed to the United States Commissioner, disclaims all knowledge of the affair, and all complicity on the part of his Government in the designs of the persons so arrested. It appears, as far as we can learn, that one of the parties arrested has only been a resident of Canada for two years; that neither of them are known to be officers in the British service; that they had enlisted or had retained for the purpose of enlistment, several men, and were on the point of leaving with them for the Queen's dominions when arrested, and it is inferred from all these circumstances, that the principal party or parties have not yet been secured.—Buffalo Courier, Friday.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE PRESIDENT, BY AND WITH THE ADVICE AND CONSENT OF THE SENATE.—C. B. H. Fessenden, Collector of the Customs at New-Bedford, Mass., reappointed; Moses F. Odell, of New-York, appraiser of merchandise, under the act approved March 2, 1851 vice S. D. Dillaye, removed; Charles A. Davis, of Virginia, to be a Chaplain in the Navy, vice Wm. McKenney, deceased; Algernon S. Garrett, of Virginia, to be Assistant Surgeon; Joseph Wilson, Jr., to be a Surgeon, (promoted;) John W. Sanford, Jr., North Carolina, H. B. Trist, District of Columbia, to be Assistant Surgeons; Charles Eversfield, to be a Surgeon, (promoted;) Thomas J. Charlton, of Georgia, Charles Lowndes, Jr., of Maryland, to be Assistant Surgeons; C. C. Jackson, of Michigan, Robert H. Clark, of Delaware, J. B. Danforth, of Illinois, to be Pursers; Samuel Archibald, to be a Chief Engineer.

THE PRESIDENT AND THE OPPOSITION.—It was confidently stated that the President had written to Governor WISE, with a view to express his disapprobation of the attacks made upon him in the Union. Whether that be so or not, it is well known that some days ago a friend of the President called upon the Governor, and told him that the President held him in the highest esteem, and hoped that he might rely upon his support and friendship hereafter. The answer was "why does he not call off his dogs then." The President has often spoken of Governor WISE's defection with regret.

The political results of the Kansas quarrel are to be very important unless the opposition are much mistaken. Mr. DOUGLAS and his friends are undoubtedly thrown out of the Democratic Party, and it becomes evident that a new political combination is to spring from it, that will be much stronger and more liberal than the Republican organization. It is to furnish the ground-work for a new organization in reference to the next Presidential election. But, before that time, a new state of things may arise that will defeat all present calculations.—Washington Correspondent of the New-York Commercial Advertiser.

SEIZURE OF SMUGGLED JEWELRY.—A seizure of jewelry, supposed by the Custom-House officers to have been smuggled, was made on Friday at the Cunard Wharf, under somewhat singular circumstances. It appears that on Friday night Inspector ABRAHAM WEEKS observed a gentleman go on board the Royal Mail steamship America, with a carpet-bag, which he supposed was comparatively empty. On Friday he saw the same gentleman come ashore with his bag, looking much more bulky. He accordingly asked him in relation to the contents, and found, on examination, that it contained about $4,000 worth of jewelry, which he at once took possession of, on the ground that the goods were smuggled.

The gentleman was Mr. JENNINGS, of the firm of JENNINGS, ADAMS & Co., manufacturing jewelers, Newark, N. J., who states that he arrived in Boston on Fast Day, and finding the stores closed, he went over to visit his friend, the Purser of the America, by whose invitation he remained all night on Board. The goods seized, he states—and his statement is corroborated by many of our leading jewelers—were made by his firm in Newark, and he left on Saturday to get the dies from which they were made, as well as the workmen who make them, to substantiate this.—Boston Ledger, 19th.

Miscellaneous Items.

The mining news from Lake Superior is favorable. The Toltec have started their stamp mill, which had been idle for two months. At the Aztec they have cut, in the adit, a vein showing copper. The Adventure has much improved. The stamp-mill is again at work, and the amount of work for it is twice that of its capacity. At the Ridge the tributers have done well, and a considerable amount of stamp material is being reduced. The mine will be in operation early in April. The show at the Evergreen is good, but little work has been done, owing to the irregularity of the men. The Ogima has 12 tons at Ontonagon, ready for shipment, mostly produced by three men. Three parties are now at work, and the show is good at all points. The showing at the National is good. At the Nebraska the tributers are still at work, with good results. An immense amount of copper is visible in various parts of the Minnesota.

Touching the Grafton (Mass.) bank robbery, it now appears that as long ago as March 17, Henry W. Pratt, the teller of the bank, agreed with the lad Albert A. Stockwell to rob the bank on the first favorable opportunity, and in accordance with this agreement the bank was robbed on the 7th inst. Pratt, after obtaining possession of the money, became very uneasy in his mind, and on Monday told Mr. Thurston, of Worcester, that it would come back in a day or two.

The Manchester (N. H.) American, is informed by a citizen of Lawrence, Mass., that the stagnation of business and dearth of employment in that place are greater than in any manufacturing town in New-England. Twelve months ago the population of the city was reckoned at 15,000. By the first of May it will not exceed 10,000. The writer adds: "Hundreds are leaving for California, and as many more for Minnesota and the West.

In Illinois, the phenomenon known in Virginia, North Carolina, Tennessee and Kentucky, about 60 years ago as the "Jerks," has made its appearance. It first appeared at a protracted meeting among the Methodists of Indian Grove, and afterwards at Avoca, the contagion having been spread by five or six Jerkers, whom the ministers had brought along with them from the former place.

The Mary Caroline Stevens, the Colonization Society's packet to Liberia, will leave Baltimore for Monrovia on the 1st of May. This ship cleared the last year upwards of $8,000 for the Society's object.

The damage to the Northern Division of the Cleveland and Toledo Railroad is slight. It will not exceed $2,000. Trains are running regularly on the Southern Division.

The Kentucky regiment for Utah has been organized. Twenty-one full companies were offered, enough for two regiments. Ten were selected, of one hundred men each.

Those ladies who love a bargain should remember that there is a perfect rush to LICHTENSTEIN'S, No. 387 Broadway, after those elegant dress-trimming ribbons he has just imported from Europe in such style and such profusion. Now that ribbons have become the great mode of the day, his magnificent assortment is besieged by the élite of New-York, who are rapidly securing all the gems, so that those who delay will not enjoy so good a chance of suiting their special taste or particular fancy. Among the articles just opened are 200 boxes ribbons for dress sashes; 180 boxes ribbons for flounces; 250 boxes ribbons for sides of dresses; 140 boxes ribbons for bows; 160 boxes for sleeves, 150 for mantilla trimmings, and 90 for head-dresses. These are all of the finest quality and the very latest styles, selected abroad by LICHTENSTEIN himself, and sold at prices ruinously below their actual value. LICHTENSTEIN'S Temple of Taste is the place for choice articles on the lowest terms. The crowd of ladies always to be found in that grand emporium of fashion is proof of its merits and attractions.

EXTRAORDINARY COMBINATION.
SECOND GRAND CLASSICAL FESTIVAL.

HENRI VIEUXTEMPS,
who will make his first appearance, in addition to
Mr. THALBERG and Mad D'ANGRI,
MUSARD'S SOLO PLAYERS FROM PARIS,
THE MAGNIFICENT ORCHESTRA.
TO THE PUBLIC.
In announcing the above programme Mr Ullman simply commences to redeem the promise made to the public to make the "Musard Concerts" not only the most entertaining and complete ever given, but likewise to combine with them a truly
PHILHARMONIC CONCERT.
by occasionally devoting one-half of the concert to the perfect rendering of the CLASSICAL WORKS OF GREAT COMPOSERS, and reserving the other for the lighter and amusing pieces which, during the last fifteen years, have given to the concerts of Mr. Musard the European reputation they possess.
The compositions selected for the Hector Berlioz night are among his most popular and most celebrated works, viz:
The two symphonic overtures of
LES FRANCS JUGES AND LE CARNIVAL ROMAIN,
WEBER'S INVITATION TO THE DANCE,
(instrumented by Mr Berlioz,) and
THE EPISODE FROM FAUST, including the far-famed Hungarian revolutionary melody called THE RAKOTZY MARCH, which, on this occasion, will be performed for the first time in America by
THE MAGNIFICENT ORCHESTRA,
which has now been rearranged and completed so as to be perfectly balanced.
On the same evening the eminent Violinist,
HENRI VIEUXTEMPS,
will make his first appearance and thus with Mr THALBERG and Mme. D'ANGRI, will form the greatest combination ever offered at a single Concert in America even without taking into consideration the exceedingly low price of admission of FIFTY CENTS,
adopted by the Manager from reasons fully explained in his first announcements.
ON THE SAME OCCASION, will be performed for the first time the ECHOS QUADRILLE, by Musard; the NELLA POLKA, with solos by LEGENDRE. A new Fantasia on the Ophicleide by MOREAU, and the Overture to "Semiramis" in addition to the EXPRESS TRAIN GALLOP and LES ZOUAVES.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

In the United States Senate yesterday, memorials were presented from citizens of New-Orleans and Philadelphia, and from the Chamber of Commerce of the former city, asking aid for the Collins steamers. The deficiency bill was considered, but nothing was done with it. A bill for the relief of the claimants in the case of the privateer brig General Armstrong was reported from the Committee on Foreign Relations. The case of Messrs. BRIGHT and FITCH, the Indiana contestants, occupied attention the rest of the day. In the House, the Washington Police bill was debated in Committee of the Whole, but no final action was taken. Memorials for the establishment of an ocean steam mail route between Philadelphia and Southampton were presented by three members, and Mr. FLORENCE gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill for the establishment of ocean post-routes to Europe.

The Kansas Committee of Conference, at their meeting to-day, failed, as anticipated, to arrive at any plan of agreement—all the modifications of the Senate bill proposed by the Senate branch being unacceptable to the House Committee. Another meeting is to be held to-day, Mr. ENGLISH having agreed to submit a new bill, the provisions of which will be found set forth in our special Washington dispatch, and it is believed, will be adopted in conference, and passed by both Houses.

The American Chargé d'Affaires at Constantinople has written a letter to the State Department, inclosing one from the Grand Vizier, showing that AMIN BEY was duly accredited as an agent of the Turkish Government.

The State Legislature finally adjourned at 10 o'clock last night, having reconsidered the previous vote to remain in Session until 5½ o'clock, P. M., to-day. The last hours were characterized by scenes of excitement, and personalities between the members. We do not receive the conclusion of the proceedings in time for our First Edition.

By the arrival at this port, yesterday, of the steamship Black Warrior, we have received later advices from Havana. Eighteen British gun-boats are stationed around the Island of Cuba watching for slavers, and are said to have overhauled some American vessels without any justifiable cause. But these charges against British cruisers have been so often made and so often disproved that we must doubt this new story until some evidence of the fact is produced. Our correspondent sends us a lengthy and amusing description of the grand ball given by the officers of the Spanish Navy, in honor of the birth of Prince ALPHONSO. The spectacle is said to have been very imposing. News from Porto Rico, and an interesting review of Mexican affairs, will also be found in our correspondent's letter.

The Special Committee, having under consideration the Mayor's charges against CHARLES DEVLIN, reported to the Board of Aldermen last evening. The Committee held that there had not been sufficient time given for an investigation; that they would willingly have given Mr. DEVLIN every facility for replying to the charges, but in consideration of the condition the Street Department had been in for a long time, they thought action should not be delayed, and therefore they reported the whole subject back to the Board, and asked to be discharged. The report was accepted, and their request complied with. Alderman ADAMS then offered a resolution concurring with the Mayor in the removal of DEVLIN, which was adopted by a vote of 10 to 5. A communication was then received from the Mayor, nominating EDWARD COOPER in the place of CHARLES DEVLIN, and the Board confirmed the nomination by a unanimous vote. After the Board adjourned, Mr. COOPER was sworn in, and the keys of the office were delivered up to him.

In the Board of Councilmen last evening, nothing was transacted during the first hour beyond ordinary routine business. His Honor the Mayor, sent in a message vetoing the ordinance prohibiting the New-York and Harlem Railroad Company from running small cars through Centre, Grand, and Broome-streets, the Bowery and Fourth-avenue, and signified his belief that the Company would cheerfully lay down grooved rails in the place of those now used, should the Common Council desire it. The document was referred, and the Board adjourned to Thursday.

At a special meeting of the Board of Health, yesterday afternoon, Mayor TIEMANN presiding, a resolution was adopted, appointing three members from each Board of the Common Council, and the Mayor as delegates, to attend the Quarantine and Sanitary Convention to assemble at Baltimore on the 29th inst. Aldermen MCSPEDON, BOOLE and STARR, and Councilmen HASWELL, CRAWFORD and CROSS were named as the Committee. Six hundred dollars were appropriated to pay their expenses.

The annual election of the Tammany Society, which took place last evening, resulted in the election of the Westchester (MICKLE, FOWLER and PURDY) ticket by a majority of 106 over the Forester (WOOD) ticket. The vote was larger than ever cast before, members being present from all parts of the country.

Yesterday Judge DAVIES rendered a decision refusing to discharge JACOB H. MOTT from arrest, and also declining to reduce the amount of his bail, which is now fixed at $141,000. He delivered quite an elaborate opinion, which will be found elsewhere. His Honor also granted an order authorizing Ex-Judge BIRDSEYE to take the testimony of Mme. LOLA MONTEZ, de bene esse, in the libel case of JOBSON vs. RAYMOND et al.

The Scott Life Guard, Captain J. H. HOBART WARD, composed of citizens who served in the Mexican War, paraded for the first time yesterday. Lieutenant-General SCOTT reviewed and briefly addressed the command from the steps of the Army Head-quarters in Eleventh-street, and they passed in review before Mayor TIEMANN, in the Park. Their uniform and carriage became them exceedingly.

The Methodist Conference was in session again yesterday. The Slavery question, upon a conservative resolution of Dr BANGS, was briskly debated, but no vote was taken upon it.

The General Markets, yesterday, opened very tamely for Cotton. Flour was less freely offered and, with a good inquiry, prices of good common brands favor sellers. Wheat was heavy, and Corn was less active. Provisions were quite stiffly held, though the demand was not so brisk. Groceries were lightly dealt in, and Sugars were depressed. The freight engagements were moderate at essentially unchanged quotations.

Mexico and the Tribune.

Our worldly neighbors of the Tribune are hardly so wise in their generation as that child of light, the late Lord THURLOW. When an ignorant nephew of that distinguished man (whose head was declared to be a living lie, since no man could possibly be so wise as he looked,) was appointed to an Indian Judgeship, the surly Chancellor advised him to give his decisions without hesitation, but never to publish his reasons, since the decisions might sometimes be wise, while the reasons would invariably be foolish. We must do our neighbors the justice to say that their decisions do not often conflict with their reasons; but they seldom have the fear of the Chancellor before their eyes, and print their arguments with a most dangerous audacity.

For some time past they have been administering discipline to the TIMES on the subject of the Mexican Protectorate. We are disposed to contemplate the possible advent of a time when it may be necessary for this country to intervene with fraternal force in the affairs of the Mexican Republic, distracted as it is by perpetual revolutions begun in haste, carried on with promiscuous violence, and ending in fresh subversions of a social order already very near to decomposition. We cannot regard the final destinies of the United States as bound up in the solution of the problems of Southern Slavery; but looking beyond the epoch at which the true principles of our Government, and the innate vigor of our race shall have triumphed over the perplexities which now beset us, we discern the advance of grander duties yet to devolve upon us, as the foremost power of the Western World. The Tribune, on the contrary, shrinks from the thought of American empire, distrusts the capacity of the American people, believes that we shall sink under the incubus of Southern folly and Northern violence, and anticipates for ourselves the same doom which now impends over Mexico. We do not agree with these views of the position and prospects of the great nation to which we belong; and we do not, therefore, hesitate to grapple with the issues offered to us by the double progress of despotism and of disintegration beyond the Rio Grande. We have, therefore, asserted that we see no solid hope for Mexican society, and for the world-wide interests involved in the condition of so large and liberal a portion of the earth's most prosperous regions, outside of a serious American Protectorate, by means of which internal peace and external respectability may be restored and confirmed to the Mexican States. And what are the objections interposed by the Tribune to this conclusion? Metaphysically, the Tribune thinks that we are unequal to the task. If we try to protect and Americanize Mexico, the Tribune thinks we shall find ourselves suddenly debased and Mexicanized. The superior race is always dragged down by the inferior, says the Tribune, pointing to the English in India. To which we can only answer by invoking the ghost of Lord THURLOW. If the Tribune really believes that handful of Anglo-Indians who have held their own, single-handed, in the midst of hostile myriads, and by the sheer force of blood and will have beaten down the countless legions of their foes, establish the doctrine it asserts, we have nothing further to say.

But the Tribune is historical also. "Look at the English protectorate of Ireland," it says, "and see what has happened there." Again we call up the departed Chancellor. By the English protectorate of Ireland, we suppose the Tribune to mean the period during which the English Government has legislated for Ireland in the interest of Ireland, and has kept the peace in that green isle, as we propose to keep the peace in Mexico—in the spirit of modern history, and on rational principles of government. The Tribune can hardly mean to refer us back either to the Middle Ages and the Plantagenet conquests, or to the Protector CROMWELL and the infernal Penal Acts of Queen ANNE. The English protectorate in which we are to look for analogies applicable to the case in point, began with the beginning of England's perception that Ireland was misruled, disorganized and laid waste. Centuries, not of protection, but of hostility, military and legislative, had brought Ireland gradually towards the precipice down which Mexico is now falling, when the Imperial Parliament awoke to a sense of the perils imminent at the right hand of the Empire, and the English protectorate at once began. England had done by these centuries of senseless and wicked hostility for Ireland, what Mexico has done for herself by twenty-five years of license and anarchy. And England set about undoing what she had done, and undertook to begin for Ireland's regeneration the work which England had incapacitated Irishmen from beginning for themselves. And with what results? In 1847 Ireland's misery culminated. From 1847 England's true protectorate dates. In March of that year the British Empire was startled by the sight of 734,000 men, representing nearly one-half the Irish population, set to labor on improvised road-works, in order to avert a threatened revolution of famine. This brought the statesmanship of all England to bear at once on the question. It was found that Ireland, under her prevailing systems of land-tenure, was rapidly rushing on to ruin. The alienation of land had been made almost impossible by the Penal acts which limited the commerce in land to Protestants, and by the operation of the Irish Equity Courts, in which, as Lord ST. LEONARDS openly said, half the value of a property must go in costs before a decree of sale under incumbrance could be carried into effect.

The cottier-tenure had cut the country up into small patches, tilled by wretched peasants who competed madly for the privilege of paying away all their produce save a few potatoes, and the inevitable pig, to their landlords or the middlemen. Out of 20,000,000 acres of land, 6,000,000 lay waste, and less than one-fourth of the cultivated land was to be found in farms of over 30 acres. The Poor-laws had been in operation but six years, and the whole island offered poor-house accommodations for some 150,000 paupers only, while the nation was almost literally mortgaged to pauperism. A new system was at once begun; a protectorate, if you please. A new Poor-law made the surrender of pauperizing tenures a condition of relief; in three successive years saved an average of 1,500,000 people from starvation, and gave the impulse to that vast Exodus which was to renew the vitality of the Irish race at home and abroad. The Renewable Leasehold Conversion Act regulated and reformed the terrible system of middlemen. Drainage Acts furnished Irish proprietors with loans for the improvement of their lands, and the Encumbered Estates Act superseded the old Equity practice, and by killing the monster of Chancery, set the life-blood of capital flowing all over the land. In less than eight years the operation of this single act set free property yielding a net rental of $7,250,000, which had been weighed down by incumbrances amounting to $180,000,000, and distributed it among 7,216 new purchasers, of whom 6,902 were native Irishmen. And such was the impulse thus given to the prosperity of Ireland, that the green crops of the country, which in 1847 covered 726,000 acres, in 1855 waved over twice that area; while the live stock of the island, its natural wealth, had risen in value from $97,000,000 to $167,500,000. And all this great work, of which the few statistics we have given barely indicate the gigantic importance, has been accomplished without serious disturbances of the public peace, or just offence given to the national sensibility of the most sensitive of races. At this very hour, Ireland herself would wreak upon any Irishman, who should be foolish enough to raise the "green standard" of BRIAN BOROIME, a most speedy and exemplary vengeance. If this is the sort of protectorate which the Tribune condemns, we opine that Mexico would welcome it with unseemly joy, and that the United States might exercise it with a most aggravating and vexatious success.

The Street Commissioner.

Mr. EDWARD COOPER is Street Commissioner. He was nominated last night by the Mayor, and confirmed unanimously by the Board of Aldermen, after that body had concurred, 10 to 5, in the removal of CHARLES DEVLIN for cause. It is needless to say that we rejoice very heartily in this result. It affords renewed evidence that neither party discipline nor more corrupt influences can be relied on to support flagrant dishonesty in the administration of municipal affairs. The resolution for DEVLIN'S removal was offered by Alderman ADAMS, a Democrat, and, as will be seen, received the votes of half the Democratic party in the Board. The rest we believe voted against it, not from any desire to screen DEVLIN'S misconduct, but because they thought it was his right to be heard in advance, in his own defence. The safety of the public is of more importance than the preservation of the technical right of an individual; and in so flagrant a case as DEVLIN'S the speediest justice is the best.

Mr. COOPER is a man of ability, energy and unsuspected integrity. He is not, as the leading DEVLIN organ has asserted, a relative of the Mayor, nor is their anything connected with his appointment to diminish the public confidence in his character. He has a most important field of public duty before him. There is probably no department of our City affairs in which peculation and fraud have had more open and unrestricted sway than in the Street Commissioner's office. Mr. CONOVER, while in possession of the place, rendered most valuable service in exposing to the public view some of the most glaring of the robberies which have there been perpetrated. Mr. COOPER will be expected to apply an effectual remedy and to restore honesty and efficiency to this department of the public service.

Judge SUTHERLAND yesterday granted an order upon Mayor TIEMANN to show cause why Mr. DEVLIN should not be at once put in possession of the keys and books of the office. The order is returnable this morning at 9 o'clock: and the Mayor will probably have no difficulty in assigning a reason perfectly satisfactory to the Judge and the public. We hear that Mr. DEVLIN has put all his property out of his hands,—for what purpose the public will have little difficulty in conjecturing. His case will probably next come before the Grand Jury.

THE NATIONAL QUARANTINE CONVENTION.—The Board of Health yesterday appointed a Committee to attend the National Quarantine Convention, in Baltimore, on the 29th inst., and it is said the Chamber of Commerce will also send delegates to attend the Convention, so that the interests of this City will be properly represented on the occasion. The objects of the Convention, it is understood, are to devise some scheme for the establishment of a uniform system of Quarantine regulations in the principal Atlantic cities, and to discuss the subject of Quarantine law generally. There was a similar Convention held in Philadelphia last year, but no practical benefits of any importance resulted from it that we have ever heard of. There can be no harm in discussing the subject, and much good may result from it, if men of scientific attainments and practical experience engage in it. But otherwise there is not much good to be anticipated. Quarantine regulations must be left to the direction of the local authorities of every place where they are required, and adapted to the exigencies of the occasion. In the meantime, new interest has been imparted to the subject by a collision between the Captain of the United States ship Susquehanna, now in quarantine, and our Health Officer. Captain SANDS having received orders from the Health Officer to send his officers and men to the Quarantine grounds, refused to comply, on the ground that he was responsible only to the Navy Department for the safety of the ship under his command. But a warrant for his arrest, issued by Justice WELSH, having been served upon him, he promptly yielded, and sent his officers and crew in conformity with the orders of the Quarantine Department. It is rather surprising that an officer of Captain SANDS' experience did not know the obligation he was under to obey the civil authorities at first.

BAD FOR BOSTON.—We had supposed that New-York was one of the most expensive cities in the world to live in, not because the necessaries of life cost more, for the raw materials of a comfortable existence are much cheaper here than in many other cities, but in consequence of the habitual extravagance which is indulged in by all classes, and the constant temptations to purchase luxuries which beset all denizens of our streets. Whatever is best of its kind that the earth produces is sent here for a market, and fortunes are spent for common articles of food which are costly luxuries when out of season. But it seems that Boston is a much more costly place to live in than New-York. The Boston Gazette says:

> "In Boston it costs more to live than in New-York, for there is an awful fear of 'what Mrs. Grundy may say,' and to keep up external appearances, inside comfort is sometimes very much neglected. A person can live cheaper in Paris than in Boston. Meats and vegetables are higher in Boston than in any city of the Union."

So much the worse for Boston. Instead of putting up bronze statues in honor of FRANKLIN they had better show their appreciation of their great philosopher by studying his maxims, and learing the art of putting down Mrs. Grundy. It is not the high price of "meats and vegetables," it seems, then, that makes living in Boston so costly, but the "awful fear of Mrs Grundy."

MR. OLMSTED AND THE CENTRAL PARK.—We see with pleasure, in a recent number of the Leipsic Grenzbloten, that Mr. OLMSTED'S "Texas Journey," originally published in these columns under the title of "Letters from the Southwestern Frontier," has been translated into German. This excellent work is reviewed with great discrimination by the German journals, which extract with many commendations Mr. OLMSTED'S admirable account of the German settlements in Texas. It is a very satisfactory thing that the superintendence of our own Central Park should now be lodged in the hands of a gentleman so universally and so favorably known for his discretion, judgment and sound information on all subjects relating to agriculture and the management of lands. It is very certain that we may safely begin to give up the practice of looking abroad for inspiration and for talent in many of the most important departments of practical science; and we trust that, as a good commencement in this direction has been made with our Central Park, it may be persevered in to the end.

The California Overland Mail Contract.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

In an article which appeared in your paper of yesterday, I can assure you, from information received from a responsible and entirely reliable source, that you have done great injustice to the contractors for the Overland Mail.

In the first place, it seems that everybody who knows anything about the organization of the Express Companies, knows that they could not undertake any such enterprise, nor was any such idea ever held out to the Postmaster-General or the public. It is true, nevertheless, that the men interested in this mail contract are the principal proprietors and managers in the several "great Express Companies," the men who have given to them their present position and character; and that consequently they are in a position to command all the "energy and facilities" which these Companies possess, so far as they may desire to avail themselves of them.

The contractors entered into the contract in good faith, and with a full knowledge that great difficulties were to be overcome, but that with a cordial and intelligent support on the part of the Postmaster-General, in carrying out, in the best way, the great enterprise, they have never entertained a doubt of its entire success. The only modification of the route ever asked for by the contractors, was, that the point of junction of the Memphis line, with the line from St. Louis, should be Fort Smith instead of Preston, or Little Rock, which was granted without hesitation; and we doubt not that hereafter the Postmaster-General will modify the roure from time to time, as good judgment and the public interest may dictate, so as to give to the contractors the very best route between the Mississippi and the Pacific.

In another respect also you were entirely misinformed. So far from the contractors having done little or nothing on the route preparatory to commencing the mail service, they have had parties on the line the whole Winter, reconnoitering and locating their stations. The chief man of one of these parties, Mr. M. L. KINYON, of Oneida County, has just returned to this City. He passed over the whole route from San Francisco to El Paso with one team of mules, making an average of from 35 to 45 miles per day. This certainly does not look as though the route was impracticable. Mr. KINYON left men in California to purchase horses and mules, and make the proper preparations for placing them on the line, together with the requisite mail wagons, many of which have already been shipped to California, one hundred having been contracted for immediately upon the execution of the mail contract.

Again, so far from the contractors having applied to the Postmaster-General for an extension of the time for beginning the mail service on the line, they have had for some time before him an application for permission to begin the service at the two extremities previous to the time fixed in the contract, intending in this way to get the whole line gradually into operation at least as early as the day fixed by the contract. Yours, D.

Amusements.

WALLACK'S THEATRE.—Miss MARY GANNON, one of the most natural and charming soubrettes in this—or any other—country, took her first benefit last night, and was honored by the attendance of a military company and a very fair representation of the civil population. A new play was produced for the occasion—the "Love Knot," by Mr. J. STIRLING COYNE. This, unquestionably, is one of the most amusing pieces of the season; the dialogue is sparkling and easy, the plot amusing (almost to the point of broad farce) and the situations excellent throughout. It is preëminently an acting play, belonging to the most rapid French school; there are no pauses, no opportunities for a careless yawn. The constructive talent of the author fills up every interstice. In the "Invisible Husband" we have a fair specimen of what a fine constructionist may accomplish; this play—minus the romance—is better made and more irresistible. The plot, of course, turns on a concealed marriage—it always does in pieces of this kind—and fun is the result of the ingenuity of the husband in evading the gallant pursuits of three lovers, who are each determined to possess the "Love Knot," which the fair one wears upon her chaste bosom. The plot is not fresh; indeed it smacks hugely of "Giralda," but the ingenuity of the dramatist is so great that every scene is full of the heartiest merriment.

Miss GANNON, Mrs. VERNON and Mrs. ALLEN sustain the three leading female rôles, and nothing can be better than their respective impersonations. We have never seen Mrs. VERNON to greater advantage. Mr. LESTER, as the beset husband, has one of those strongly-defined characters which he knows so well how to handle with humorous grace. Mr. DAVENPORT, Mr. WALCOT and Mr. GROSVENOR are the three gallants, and play with perfect spirit. The piece was a complete success, and will doubtless enjoy a run. It has been put on the stage in the best possible manner; the dresses and scenery are both excellent and appropriate. Miss GANNON was called out after the performance, and received a shower of bouquets without flinching.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—The "Hector Berlioz night" brought rain, but it did not keep away the admirers of novelty. The Academy was filled with an enthusiastic audience, and Mr. BERLIOZ'S compositions were listened to, and applauded vehemently. Mr. ANSCHUTZ conducted the orchestra. In works of this kind it is almost impossible to find a better conductor. Mr. ANSCHUTZ possesses a rare instinct for discovering the best orchestral points of a composition, and for exhibiting them in their greatest radiency. Mr. BERLIOZ'S works are most profitable studies; he developes the actual resources of the modern orchestra with wonderful skill, and, although deficient in melody, presents a series of tone pictures which excite the imagination, and satisfy the appetite for polyphonic combinations in a grand manner. The great violinist VIEUXTEMPS was received with demonstrations, and Mme. D'ANGRI and Mr. THALBERG came in for their share of the popular satisfaction. Altogether, the concert of last evening was one of the best we have ever had in this City. M. MUSARD conducted the second part with his accustomed skill. The Berlioz programme will be repeated to-night for the last time.

INTERESTING FROM HAVANA.

British Cruisers and the Slave-Trade—Mexican Affairs—News from Porto Rico—Grand Spanish Naval Entertainment—Business.

The United States Mail steamer Black Warrior, J. W. SMITH, commander, from New-Orleans on the 11th and Havana on the 14th inst., arrived at this port yesterday morning.

Eighteen British gun-boats were stationed around the Island of Cuba on coast survey, and to prevent the landing of negroes. American vessels trading about the island have, it is said, been boarded and searched by them without any cause or suspicion of their being engaged in the slave-trade.

A grand ball was given on board the Spanish flagship Isabella Secunda on 11th inst.

From our own Correspondent.

HAVANA, Tuesday, April 13, 1858.

On looking over the files of Mexican papers brought by the last English steamer, one is struck with the contradictory statements of the rival factions. The Vera Cruz papers proclaim that ECHEGARAY has been defeated by General LA LLAVE; whilst the former, in his dispatch to ZULOAGA, claims a decisive victory over the rebellious forces of Vera Cruz. At all events, one can easily see that the Government troops have been generally successful throughout the Republic, though not always through superior generalship. The great secret of ZULOAGA'S success is the handsome sums he bestows on the opposing Generals, who willingly sell themselves for a small sum and the promise of being retained on full pay. It was by these means that PARRODI and DOBLADO were induced to deliver up their forces into ZULOAGA'S power. The Santanists have been actively at work, and a body of fifteen—who had gone to Tampico in the Dee for the purpose of proclaiming the ex-Dictator—were seized by General LA GARZA and handed over for trial. Among them were several influential Mexicans.

Everything is quiet in Porto Rico, and the inhabitants are perfectly delighted with their present Captain-General, who has devoted all his energies to the establishing of good turnpikes throughout the whole island. The work has been commenced, with a large force, at several points, with every prospect of conclusion before two years. In St. John's business was rather dull, but theatricals were as much in vogue as MAX'S Opera Troupe, the inhabitants going to the same foolish extremes as the Habaneros, to express their admiration for the rival actresses of the Spanish Zarzuela. The yellow fever was pretty severe, particularly among the shipping.

Approaching nearer home the most important subject on the tapis is the present active search after Spanish Slavers on our coast by the English cruisers. For the last two weeks two steamers have been constantly entering and leaving our port, but with eyes fixed on certain vessels known to be fitting out in this harbor for the coast. So active are the commanders of the two vessels that the owners of the long, low, black schooners are somewhat chary in their movements.

The great ball, given by the officers of the Spanish Navy in honor of Prince ALFONSO, took place last Sunday evening, and exceeded in brilliancy and taste all previous efforts of the kind in this port, and probably on this side of the waters. The whole affair cost $25,000, including the expense of lighting the beautiful ship with gas. The flowers alone cost $2,000! The Cuban ladies were numerous and gorgeously dressed, and the display of diamonds was much greater than at CONCHA'S ball. The number of guests exceeded five thousand, and the dancing ceased at 6 o'clock A. M.! I have always entertained a high opinion of the chivalry of the Spanish naval officers, many proofs of which our merchant marine have frequently received, and am glad to have this opportunity of expressing my opinion publicly of their gallantry. The Havana ladies were so much taken by surprise at the magnificence of the decorations, and the completeness of every detail, that they could hardly find words to express their agreeable astonishment. A dancing friend of mine observed, that the gold buttons had gained so much popularity among the girls, that it was with the greatest difficulty he could find a partner. Not feeling myself competent enough at the descriptive, I have thought best to give your readers the following translation from the Diario de la Marina, wherein all is faithfully told. The following article occupies the most prominent place in the Diario: "The great fête with which our navy last night crowned those dedicated by the Capital of the Antilles in celebration of the happy birth of the Prince of Asturias deserves by its object, its character, its magnificence and all its circumstances, the place we give it in our columns.

Much had been said beforehand of the magnificence with which everything was being prepared. Still those announcements did not diminish the surprise felt by all from the moment of their arrival at the Machina wharf, for on all sides were heard exclamations of applause and admiration at the talent, good taste and judgment with which the naval officers charged with the direction of the work had succeeded in doing what all would have thought impossible. Thousands of our citizens bore witness that the fête on the Isabel Segunda has no equal in the annals of Cuba. Praise for those who have worked incessantly night and day in order that the compliment should be worthy of the noble object to which it was dedicated.

To tell the impression caused by the simple exterior view would be to fail in giving a satisfactory description, because we cannot describe as we feel. All the modifications, all the improvements in the daguerreotype have not yet succeeded in producing in all that life, which ever constitutes the difference between nature and its best image. How then could we aspire in these brief lines to give our exact description of the truth!

We will not stop to examine the part destined to the comfort of those seeking access to the Machina; let us hasten to the gateway adorned with arches of evergreens, illuminated with a profusion of gas lights. Above the arch there was a transparency representing the stern of the vessel shrouded with flags looped up with a broad ribbon, on which was printed the following inscription: "The Navy to the Prince of Asturias." From this gate led the principal alley of a beautiful garden, which had been formed in the Machina. Four large arches, completely covered with leaves and flowers, under which were placed two fire engines, in the remote case of an accident, led to the walks on the right and left, adorned with the national colors, evergreens, vases with blooming flowers and trees, the whole inclosed with a fence, formed of the musketry and artillery of the ship. The main alley of which we have spoken, was carpeted with flags, and served the purposes of a saloon, adorned with marble fountains, with two rustic tents on each side, wherein the ladies deposited their shawls. Seventy-two gas lights illuminated this fairy spot.

A broad staircase adorned with white and blue trimmings, and festooned with evergreens and flowers, led to a spacious platform surrounded with wreaths of flowers, which served as a sort of parlor to the ship. To the left of the platform stairs had been erected, which led to the gun deck, the principal dancing saloon. On each side of the staircase two beautiful tents were placed for the sentinels. The construction of these staircases is deserving of particular mention, being made of heavy timbers, resting on wheels, which prevented the motion of the ship from injuring the passage. We have now reached the principal seat of the sumptuous feast, where the officers charged with the decorations have displayed all that talent and good taste could suggest, to convert the spacious spar deck into the most magnificent ball room. We should like to give our readers an idea of the magnificent coup d'œil presented by the saloon filled with the most distinguished and fashionable ladies of Havana by the side of many distinguished models of grace and beauty (masculine) belonging to our Navy. At the foot of the mainmast a beautiful Summer house, perfectly covered with flowers, was erected for the musicians. On the poop deck, under a magnificent damask velvet canopy, embroidered with gold, was placed the portrait of Her Majesty. At the foot of the portrait, as well as at the bow, the stairs were festooned with blue and white gauze, looped up with flowers. At the foot of the stairs over the forecastle there was a group of bronze statuary representing Psyche and Cupid enthroned in crimson damask. Over the decks a handsome awning, blue and white, sprinkled with flowers and evergreens, was gracefully shown. Plain military trophies intermixed with statues and vases formed the chief ornaments of the bulwarks, the whole being gaily festooned with flowers and gauze. The carpet was white sprinkled with blue flowers, and illuminated with 122 gas lights, issuing from candelabras made especially for this feast. We will finish with this part of our task by mentioning that the Captain's cabin had been converted into a magnificent boudoir for the ladies, divided into two richly furnished apartments, adorned with gilt tables and life-size pier glasses, illuminated by massive silver candelabras.

The gun-deck (middle deck) was painted a pure white, and the guns and sides decorated with garlands of flowers, interspersed with statues and vases, and illuminated by 200 gas lights. In the lower gun-deck there was an immense table set in the form of a horse-shoe, 310 feet long, and lighted by 300 lights from massive candelabras. The supper was all that the most fastidious could wish for.

About ten o'clock the Captain-General, Admiral and many superior officers arrived with their families and aides, and the Admiral drew back the curtain that concealed her Majesty's portrait. In an instant the yards of all the vessels were manned and illuminated with Roman candles and salutes of 21 guns were fired from all the vessels, amid shouts for the Queen and the Royal March."

The immense derrick or crane erected by Mr. BISHOP was profusely illuminated with little lanterns that had an admirable effect. The company that gathered together on board the Isabel Segunda was far more recherché than that which usually attends the Palace balls. On the whole the navy has certainly carried off the palm in the Royal feasts.

The fair for the Catalans has netted the nice sum of $40,000. Pretty good work for seven days.

During the feasts two of the correspondents for the American Press were furnished with orders from the Captain-General to visit all the public buildings for the purpose of taking sketches. This is quite a new feature in Cuban politics, but being rather wary of such conversions myself, I would repeat to my brother correspondents, "Timeo Danaos et dona ferentes."

Another boat-race took place last Sunday morning, between the conqueror of the last race and one of the conquered. The bet was for $3,000, and was won by the same boat.

The small-pox is still pretty bad, and respects no class.

Annual Election of the Tammany Society—The Westchester Ticket Triumphant.

The annual election of the Sachems and other officers of the Tammany Society was held last evening according to announcement, at Tammany Hall. The presence of two opposing factions in the field with their respective candidates, both claiming to be "regular," and the uncertainty which was felt as to the result, imparted unusual interest to the election, and brought together members of the order from all parts of the country. A larger vote by sixty was cast than was ever cast before by this venerable order. Representatives from Cincinnati, Washington, Albany, Genesee, Hudson, and many other places in and out of the State were present, and members who have not voted before for twenty years, came to the old Wigwam in carriages to deposit their votes. The infirm and superannuated members were brought out in carriages, a long line of which filled up the street in front of the Hall. To preserve order, Sergeant BIRNEY, of the Mayor's squad, was present, with twenty-five policemen, and a reserve force of fifty more were within a moment's call at the City Hall and Fourth Precinct Station-house. There was no occasion, however, for their services, as the election went off peaceably. There was a large crowd in and about the Hall, but no demonstrations were made by either party inconsistent with good order. The confidence of success which each seemed to cherish no doubt contributed very much to this result.

At precisely "half an hour after the setting of the sun" Grand Sachem DANIEL E. DELAVAN called the aborigines to order, and presided during the evening by virtue of his office. A. S. VOSBURG and WILLIAM MINER were appointed tellers, and Messrs. HARRISON and AUBREY Clerks. The two challengers were, for the "Forresters," FERNANDO WOOD, and for the Westchester ticket, NELSON J. WATERBURY. Shortly after 7 o'clock the balloting begun, and was continued until 10 o'clock P. M., when the poll was closed and the canvassing began. It was nearly 1 o'clock before the counting was complete, although the general result was known long before this time, and was hailed by the victorious party in doors and out with the usual demonstrations. The whole number of votes cast was 378. Appended are the two tickets, with the vote for each ticket. The Westchester (MICKLE, FOWLER and PURDY) ticket being elected by about one hundred majority.

The Democracy of Philadelphia opened the Municipal campaign on Friday night, by a ratification meeting at the National Guard's Hall. Hon. CHARLES BROWN presided, and made a speech, followed by BENJAMIN RUSH and CHARLES W. CARRIGAN; and then resolutions were adopted, which praised Mayor VAUX, pitched into the Know-Nothings, and furnished a tabular statement, going to show that the Democracy have saved the citizens some $984,000 in two years' time, in various items of public expenditure.

The Collector and Sub-Treasurer.

Our Washington Correspondent, under date of 15th inst., telegraphed as follows:

> "Mr. J. J. CISCO, now Assistant-Treasurer at New-York, is said to be seeking an appointment as Collector in place of Mr. SCHELL, who is in danger of dismissal on account of his connection with the Willett's Point affair. Efforts are made to involve Postmaster FOWLER in Mr. SCHELL'S fate."

We are informed that our correspondent was in error in ascribing to Mr. JOHN J. CISCO, the Assistant-Treasurer at New-York, any aspirations for the Collectorship of this port, and that his visit to Washington was entirely connected with the business of his own office.

The Streets—The Eighteenth Ward.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

Will you please to call attention to the condition of the streets in the Eighteenth Ward? They were cleaned on the 12th of last November, and again some time in December, since which neither shovel nor broom has been near them from the street cleaners, according to the best of my knowledge and belief. In the meantime, we are in a fair way of being smothered. Prior to the 12th of November last, they had not, according to my memorandum book, been cleaned for some months. Yet I learned at the proper office that the contractor is under obligation to clean them once a week. Is this the way we allow ourselves to be imposed on? This man draws his pay punctually enough for cleaning the streets once a week, and performs that office probably four times a year. For one, I want to know if our City authorities are going to allow this? Will you please put in your paper this word of remonstrance, and oblige,

ONE IN THE EIGHTEENTH WARD.

Removal of Charles Devlin from the Office of Street Commissioner.

Edward Cooper Appointed to Fill the Vacancy, and Sworn into Office.

The Mayor Cited to Show Cause why the Keys Should not be Delivered to Devlin.

Board of Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen met last evening, President CLANCY in the Chair. There was a very large lobby attendance, in consequence of a general belief that there would be an exciting debate on the Mayor's removal of Charles Devlin from the office of Street Commissioner. Soon after the minutes of the previous meeting had been read and approved, the Special Committee having the charges against Charles Devlin under consideration, presented the following:

REPORT OF THE DEVLIN COMMITTEE.

The Special Committee to whom was referred the communication from His Honor the Mayor, suspending Charles Devlin from the office of Street Commissioner upon charges preferred against him, several petitions asking for his removal, together with a communication from Charles Devlin on the subject, respectfully report:

That they have carefully considered the matters so referred; and from the nature of the charges, they have agreed not to enter into a detailed investigation of the papers and documents, nor of examining any witnesses on the subject, for the following reasons:

First—The Board having by resolution instructed your Committee to report on the subject on the 19th inst., (this evening,) they could not, in the short space of time allowed them, open the case and examine the charges preferred, nor give the party accused an opportunity of being heard in his defence, an inalienable right guaranteed by our constitution and laws to the humblest citizen charged with the commission of crime.

Second—To enter into a thorough examination of the charges would occupy several weeks, if not months, thereby opening a lengthy controversy, and causing an unnecessary interruption of the public business of that Department.

Third—This Department, having been for nearly a year paralyzed and inoperative by the litigation to decide the right of appointment of Street Commissioner, the public works connected therewith have been neglected, and the property of the City impaired to a great extent; necessity, therefore, imperatively demands that this important branch of our City Government should now be put into active operation without any further delay.

Fourth—Your Committee are fully satisfied that the twenty-first section of the Charter of 1857, which provides as follows: "The Mayor shall have power to suspend, for cause, during any recess of the Common Council, and by and with the consent of the Board of Aldermen to remove any of the Heads of Department, except the Comptroller and Counsel to the Corporation,"—gives the Mayor and Board of Aldermen full control over the appointment or removal of the Head of the Department in question.

For the foregoing reasons your Committee have concluded to submit the whole matter back to the Board, for such action as may be considered necessary, and for the best interests of the City.

THOMAS McSPEDON,
JAMES OWENS,
JOHN J. BRADLEY,
MICHAEL TUOMEY,

} Special Committee.

Alderman ADAMS—I move that the report be accepted, and the Committee discharged.

The question on Alderman ADAMS motion was put and carried.

Alderman ADAMS—Mr. Chairman, you will find on your desk a resolution which I wish to be put.

The resolution was read, as follows:

Whereas, On the 12th instant, the Mayor removed Charles Devlin from the office of Street Commissioner, and asked the concurrence of the Board therewith; and

Whereas, The Mayor on the 16th instant, communicated to the Common Council the suspension of said Devlin by him from the said office; and in such communication stated the causes thereof; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Board concur in such action of the Mayor, and that the said Charles Devlin be and he is hereby removed from said office of Street Commissioner of the City of New York.

PRESIDENT—The question will be on the adoption of the resolution.

Alderman ADAMS—I call for the ayes and nays.

The question was taken by ayes and nays, and the resolution was adopted, by a vote of 10 to 5, as follows:

AYES—Messrs. Murray, Tucker, Starr, Adams, Lynes, Reed, Wilmot, Bradley, Owens, Davis.

NOES—Messrs. Clancy, Tuomey, Stephens, Boole, McSpedon.

While the Ayes and Noes were being called,

Aldermen STEPHENS rose and said he desired to explain his vote. At a previous meeting, he continued, of this Board, I stated that I was opposed to disposing of Mr. Devlin summarily. Since that time charges have been made against him, the truth or fallacy of which I know not. At that meeting a Committee was appointed to investigate those charges, and tonight they report that they have not had sufficient time; and as the consequences of those charges would be serious, and entail serious consequences not only on himself, but on his family in their private capacity, I will vote No.

Alderman TUOMEY—In voting upon the question now before the Board, I am called upon to abandon or sustain the position I have always occupied in reference to Mr. Devlin. I have known him long and intimately, and because of that intimacy I wish to explain myself. Our acquaintance has extended over a period of fifteen or sixteen years. I have known him always as a hard-working and industrious man—a man perseveringly devoted to his business. I have known him to toil 15 hours out of the 24, and as the well-earned fruit of his toil, he accumulated, I suppose, a fortune of some $30,000 or $40,000. That was previous to his entering into the contract business. We all know the position he occupied in the Street Department. Certain reports have been submitted to us which set forth serious charges against him. I, as one of the Committee to whom those charges were referred, was certainly willing to open the investigation, and I should have liked to go into all the details. The Department, however, was in such a condition that it was made imperative on us to close our examination at the earliest possible moment. For the purpose of obtaining thorough information on the subject I called upon Mr. Devlin himself, and he stated to me, most unequivocally, that he cared very little about the office, and that if he were allowed the opportunity he would like to clear himself of the charges urged against him. I told him that the Committee would certainly make their report on Monday night, that the subject would then be brought to a close, that the public were interested in having it thus promptly decided, and that if he meant to take any measures in regard thereto, he must make up his mind to present his vindication before that time. I repeat to you that I have known Mr. Devlin for many years. I knew him when his children, now grown up to be young men and women, were little boys and girls. For his sake, as well as for theirs, I would like that he should have an opportunity of submitting his official acts to a full and searching investigation, whether it result in his interest or to his detriment. Under these circumstances, Mr. President, I feel obliged to vote No.

Alderman ADAMS—Inasmuch as the gentlemen have all explained their votes, perhaps it would be as well for me to explain mine. I don't know Mr. Devlin, otherwise than by reputation or by sight. I never made his acquaintance, but, even if I had, in judging of his official conduct, I should make no distinction between him and anybody else. I am of opinion that the sooner the machinery of the Street Commissioner's office is put into working order the better, and therefore I shall vote Aye.

Alderman McSPEDON—The Mayor, a week ago, at our last meeting, sent in certain charges against Mr. Devlin. Those charges were referred to a Special Committee. The time allotted to us was from last Saturday night until this evening. The Committee entered upon their duties, and found it would be utterly out of the question to give Mr. Devlin a fair opportunity to enter into such a defence as should be allowed to him. Those charges are serious. If they are correct, he should not retain the office. If they are not, they are of such a nature that he should not be condemned to labor under them. Hence I think it was the duty of the Board to give this Committee sufficient time to have this matter fully investigated. And, inasmuch as we have not had that opportunity, I certainly must vote No.

When the matter had been decided, Alderman BRADLEY arose, and moved that a Committee of three be appointed to wait upon the Mayor and inform him of the action of the Board in relation to the removal of Charles Devlin.

The Committee was appointed, went out and returned again in a few moments, when Alderman BRADLEY stated that they had seen the Mayor, and that he had sent to the Board the following communication:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, April 19, 1858.

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen:

GENTLEMEN—I hereby nominate Edward Cooper to the office of Street Commissioner, in the place of Charles Devlin, removed.

Alderman LYNES moved to lay the communication on the table.

Alderman BRADLEY called for the ayes and noes, which were taken with the following result:

AYES—Messrs. Tucker, Starr, Lynes, Reed, Wilmot—5.

NOES—Messrs. Murray, Clancy, Hoffmire, Stevens, Toumey, Adams, Boole, Bradley, McSpedon, Owens, Davis—11.

The motion to confirm the nomination by the Mayor was then put and carried unanimously.

The Board then adjourned to Thursday next.

MR. COOPER SWORN IN.

Immediately after the adjournment, Mr. Cooper appeared at the Mayor's Office, accompanied by the following gentlemen as his securities: Messrs. A. M. C. Smith and John Hewitt, Jr. His securities were accepted; he was sworn into office, and the keys were delivered over to him.

MR. DEVLIN MAKES ANOTHER APPEAL TO THE COURTS.

During the day the following petition was presented, and the order obtained.

To the Hon. Josiah Sutherland, one of the Justices of the Supreme Court of the State of New-York:

The petition of Charles Devlin, of said City respectfully showeth:

That in the month of November, 1855, one Joseph S. Taylor was duly elected to the office of Street Commissioner of the City of New York for the term of three years from the first Monday in January, 1856, and continued to fill the said office and discharged the duties thereof until the 9th day of June, 1857, when he died.

That on the 16th day of June, 1857, your petitioner was duly appointed to said office of Street Commissioner of said City by the Mayor of said City, with the advice and consent of the Board of Aldermen thereof, and that after such appointment and on the same 16th day of June, 1857, your said petitioner, Charles Devlin, accepted said appointment, and in due form of law took and filed his official bond with sufficient securities, duly approved, and became and is the Street Commissioner of said City.

That appertaining to the said office is a large quantity of books, papers, maps and documents of various descriptions which are contained in the office assigned by law for the use of the Street Department, in the building known as the Hall of Records in the Park of the said City, of which office D. F. Tiemann has obtained the keys and retains the possession thereof, and of the said books, papers and maps, and documents therein contained.

That your petitioner has demanded the same from him, but that he withheld the same and refuses to deliver the same to your petitioner.

Your petitioner therefore prays that the said Tiemann may be ordered to show cause before you on the 20th inst., at 9 o'clock in the forenoon, at the chambers of the Justices of the Court at the City Hall, in the City of New-York, why he should not be compelled to deliver the said books, papers, maps and documents to your petitioner.

And your petitioner will ever pray, &c.

CHARLES DEVLIN.

STILLWELL & SWAN, Attorneys of Petitioner.

City and County of New-York, ss.:—Charles Devlin, being duly sworn, says that he has read the foregoing petition by him subscribed, and that the same is true of his own knowledge, except as to the matters which are on information and belief, and that he believes the same to be true. CHARLES DEVLIN.

Sworn before me this 17th day of April, 1858.

ANDREW J. SMITH, Commissioner of Deeds.

ORDER.

On the foregoing petition let Daniel F. Tiemann therein named show cause before me, on the 20th day of April, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon, at the chambers of the Justice of this Court in the City Hall, in the City of New-York, why he should not be compelled forthwith to deliver to the petitioner the books, papers, maps and documents belonging or appertaining to the office of the Street Commissioner of the City of New-York. JOSIAH SUTHERLAND.

Dated April 19, 1857.

STILLWELL & SWAN, attorneys for petitioner.

Board of Councilmen.

The Board of Councilmen met Monday afternoon, the President, C. H. HASWELL, Esq., in the Chair.

The petition of Mr. J. Reilly, to be paid the balance on his contract for flagging Lewis-street, was referred to the Committee on Streets.

The report of the Committee on Finance, in favor of referring the petition of Joseph Murray, asking that the amount paid by him for grading Seventy-first-street might be refunded to the Committee on Assessments, was adopted.

The report of the Committee on Finance, concurring to pay William Davis for damages sustained by a mob, was laid over.

The report of the Committee on Assessments, in favor of adhering to their former action confirming the assessment for a sewer in Thirty-seventh-street, between Lexington and Fourth avenues, was laid over.

The report of the Committee on the Fire Department, in favor of sending back document No. 473, relating to Hose Company No. 49, for reconsideration, was adopted.

Several papers from the Board of Aldermen were referred to appropriate Committees of this Board.

His Honor the Mayor sent in a veto to the action of the Boards of Aldermen and Councilmen in reference to the small cars of the Harlem Railroad Company. He observes, "In case the small cars should be withdrawn, it would not only prove a great injury to the Company, but cause serious inconvenience to the public. I might add, that this Company deserves some indulgence at the hands of the Common Council. While the Company should be held to a strict compliance with the conditions or provisions of their contract with the City, and should be compelled to carry out the resolutions and ordinances of the Common Council in respect to the repairs and proper condition of its track, every opportunity should be offered to it to be heard on the same. And I am of opinion, should your honorable body, after such opportunity thus afforded, pass a resolution requiring grooved rails to be laid in the place of those now used on the line of the City track, it will cheerfully and readily comply with the same."

The usual reference was ordered, after which the Board adjourned to Thursday.

FIRST PARADE OF THE SCOTT LIFE GUARD.—This newly-organized corps, composed of citizens of this State who served in the War with Mexico, celebrated the eleventh anniversary of the battle of Cerro Gordo yesterday, by a parade, review, collation, and visit to the theatre. They assembled in the morning at the Mercer House, and thence proceeded to the United States Army Headquarters, No. 114 West Eleventh-street, where they were reviewed by Lieutenant-General SCOTT, after which they drew up in line and the General briefly addressed them, complimenting them upon their soldiery bearing, expressing the happiness which he felt in meeting them once more, and deploring the absence of those of their brave comrades who had fallen on the field of battle or died since the close of the War. The General, who was not in uniform, said he regretted that he was compelled to receive them in citizen's clothes, but his uniform was where he himself expected to have been at that moment, in Washington. On some future occasion, if they thus honored him again, he would review them in a more soldierly manner. He was suffering from a severe cold, and was compelled therefore to speak thus briefly. A large crowd witnessed the review, and applauded the speech of the General. The Guard next marched to Union-square, where they halted for a season, then marched down Broadway, around the Bowling Green, and up to the Park, where, a little before 4 o'clock, Mayor TIEMANN reviewed them. Thence they proceeded to the Mercer House, where they did justice to the bountifully-provided collation. The uniform of the Guard resembles very closely that of the U. S. Infantry. There were 53 men in the ranks, and the command presented an imposing appearance. Shelton's Band accompanied them. In the evening they visited Wallack's Theatre.

On Sunday LOLA MONTEZ was standing on the rear platform of a crowded Third-avenue car, when a young pickpocket adroitly obtained possession of her porte-monnaie. The conductor observed the operation of the youthful "knuck," and grabbed him by the coat collar as he was about to jump from the car. The fellow dropped the purse and dexterously slipped off his coat, leaving the conductor holding it by the collar, while he darted across the street and was soon out of sight. LOLA confessed that she was as pleased at the smartness of the little fellow as at recovery of her porte-monnaie.

A salute of one hundred guns will be fired in Pike-slip this evening by the mechanics and workingmen dependent for a livelihood upon the various Floating Docks, in recognition of the passage of the bill by the Legislature retaining those structures in their present location, and "legalizing the business of repairing vessels" by their means. Both Pike and Rutgers Slips will be illuminated by numerous tar barrel bonfires.

BODY RECOGNIZED.—The young man who was found shot through the lungs at Staten Island, on Saturday last, has been identified as CHARLES SCHAFFER, a German, aged 19, a bookbinder, and recently residing at No. 119 William-street, this City. He had been unwell for some time, and had before attempted suicide. He was buried on the Island.

Several of the Republican Associations of the Wards met last night and elected 5 delegates each to a Young Men's Central Committee, which is to organize on the evening of the 11th May. Some of the Clubs not meeting last night, the Central Committee is not yet full.

GIFT BOOK ENTERPRISES.—ADOLPHUS RANNEY, proprietor of the gift-book store at No. 293 Broadway, and WM. DAYTON alias MCDONALD, who keeps a gift-book store at No. 107 Nassau-street, were arrested yesterday and taken before the Mayor who sent them before the City Judge for examination.

About 12 o'clock last night, a fire broke out in the basement of M. H. CHAMBERS' jewelry and silver ware store, No. 391 Broadway. It was put out before more than a few hundred dollars damage had been done. Its origin is not known.

Police Intelligence.

GARROTING AND ROBBERY.—As Wm. G. Newman of No. 756 Greenwich-street, was passing the corner of Hudson and Broome streets, at a late hour Sunday night, he was attacked by five Eighth Ward "short boys." Three of the gang held him by the neck, while the other two robbed him of his porte-monnaie, containing $6 40, and of his breast pin and watch chain, after which they fled. Mr. NEWMAN started after them, shouting "stop thief" at the top of his voice. Officer TYLER arrested one of them, who gave his name as Charles Jobson. The prisoner was yesterday taken before Justice QUACKENBUSH and committed for examination. The Police are on the look out for his confederates.

A PHYSICIAN CHARGED WITH SWINDLING.—Julia A. Embrey, a young woman living at No. 50 West Thirteenth street, made a complaint yesterday at the Second District Police Court, charging Dr. A. G. Hall, of No. 993 Broadway, with swindling. She alleges that she presented to the Doctor an order upon him for $3 75, given to her by Mr. Tobias Weyant, and that the Doctor took the order, but afterwards denied having received it, and refused to give it back to her. A warrant was issued for the Doctor's arrest on a charge of larceny.

New-York (East) Methodist Conference.

The fifth day of the Conference (yesterday) was opened with prayer by the Rev. J. J. MATTHIUS, at 9½ o'clock A. M.

Resolutions were adopted recommending the "Superannuated Preachers' Fund" to the sympathy of the people, and providing for the appointment of a committee to consider at once the expediency of organizing and supporting a mission to include the whole unoccupied field within New-York City.

The following resolutions were offered by the Rev. Messrs. W. T. COLLINS and T. H. PERRY, and adopted:

Resolved, That it is the opinion of this Conference the time has arrived, when it is the duty of the Church to consider the necessity and propriety of establishing an institution for Ministerial and Missionary education, to be located in the City of New-York, in its vicinity, or in the city of Middletown.

Resolved, That a Committee of five members be appointed to consider this matter, and report to the Conference during the present session.

The discussion on the Slavery resolutions was then resumed, Dr. BANGS offering the following substitute for the second of the resolutions which were discussed on Saturday:

Resolved, That it is the duty of the Church, as a unit, to exert herself in ameliorating the condition of the slaves in our country, and to use all Scriptural and prudent means to effect, as soon as practicable, their emancipation.

This being seconded, a brisk debate ensued, in which the Rev. Dr. BANGS, the Rev. Dr. KENNEDY, and the Rev. J. S INSKIP took part. Without a vote upon the resolution, the Conference adjourned till 9½ of this day, (Tuesday.)

RAILROAD FROM HOBOKEN TO PIERMONT.—This road, known as the "Northern Railroad of New-Jersey," which has been in contemplation since 1852, is at last in a fair way to be constructed. The surveys for the route have been completed, and the contract for building the road has been given to Messrs. JAMES M. TOWER and BRADFORD SEYMOUR, of Oneida County, N. Y. Ground was broken a few days since, and a small body of laborers are now engaged in the work of grading. It is estimated that the work will cost $150,000. The road is to run through the Hackensack Valley to connect with the Erie road at Tappan, and will be 21 miles in length. Arrangements have been made with the Erie Railroad Company for the use of the Bergen Tunnel, and the free use of their track from Blanche's Station to the village of Piermont. It is thought that the road will be completed it about ten months.

CHANGE IN THE HOBOKEN FERRY.—The Hoboken Ferry Company have made a change in running the night boat, on the Barclay-street ferry, so that three more trips are added during the night. The boat now leaves the New-York side every half-hour until 12¾, after which there are two hour trips and then the half-hour trips are resumed at 2¾. At 6 o'clock in the morning the quarter-hour trips are commenced, and continued until 7¾ in the evening.

ARRESTS FOR PLAYING BALL ON SUNDAY.—Officers CHASE and JAYQUINS, of Jersey City, arrested two men named HENRY FORBES and MICHAEL MURRAY, on Sunday afternoon, for engaging in a game of ball. They were taken before Recorder BEDFORD, yesterday morning, when FORBES was punished with a fine of $2, and MURRAY was sent back to the City Prison for two days.

☞ Influenza Cured in a few Hours.—There are a great many, at the present time, seriously troubled with coughs, colds and influenza. If ye who are thus troubled will swallow from four to six of RADWAY'S Regulators, and bathe the surface of the body with RADWAY'S Ready Relief, your whole system will be free from every symptom of pain and distress in less than six hours after these remedies are used. A gentleman who visited Wallack's Theatre on Monday night, got overheated, took off his overcoat, exposed himself to a cool draught of air, and caught a very severe cold. During the night he was seized with violent pains all over his body. His throat was so sore he could scarcely swallow; watery discharges from the eyes and nose were constant; every bone in his body ached with pain; and he was so hoarse that he could not speak above a whisper. In this condition the next morning found him. We, however, knew his difficulty, and knew the remedies that would cure him. At 7 o'clock he took down six of RADWAY'S Regulators, and had his whole body rubbed with RADWAY'S Ready Relief. At 12 o'clock, the same day, he was rid of all his difficulties. RADWAY'S Regulators and Ready Relief will cure the influenza and all bad colds in a few hours. Toothache is cured instantly by the Relief.

AN EXCITING SEA-STORY!
NOVELTY AFTER NOVELTY!
THE NEW-YORK WEEKLY,
READY WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 21, will contain
ANOTHER NEW ORIGINAL STORY entitled
THE OCEAN WANDERER: OR,
ADVENTURES ON LAND AND SEA,

In which the author depicts, in graphic style, the Startling Scenes and Romantic Adventures of Life as a Sailor before the Mast. The narrative of the "OCEAN WANDERER" is a bold but truthful picture of the most exciting incidents in every quarter of the Globe, in which are portrayed the chivalry, daring, freaks, follies and superstitions of the sailor; together with the tyrannies and brutalities to which he is too often subjected by the officers who command our vessels. Some of these scenes develope a refinement of cruelty and a systematic torture that cannot fail to send a chill of horror through every civilized community! This is the dark side of the picture. "A Life on the Ocean" has its sunshine as well as its storms—its pleasures as well as its pains—and the author has most happily and forcibly presented these various phases of life on the great deep, in the progress of the "OCEAN WANDERER."

The descriptions of the manners and customs of the Natives of the "far-off Isles of the Sea," among whom the author passed a portion of his Eventful Life, are full of interest. He carries the reader through the delightful groves where the banana and cocoanut grow—and anon takes him far away into the solitary forests of Tropical fruit, which are only to be found in the Isles of that clime "where Summer reigns eternal"—passing in rapid succession before his mental vision a panorama of the most gorgeous Pictures in the world. Amid this delightful scenery, after all hope of ever gazing on the glorious stars and stripes of his native land, or seeing the friends of his childhood again, the author makes a discovery of the most startling character which changes the whole current of his adventurous career. "THE OCEAN WANDERER finds himself at home among the natives."

There is a reckless daring in the life of the Sailor which is unaccountable. He pursues his perilous calling with an infatuation which amounts to idolatry. It is this spirit which carries our commerce to the remote quarters of the globe—which whitens the ocean with the sails of the merchantman, and unfolds the flag of all maritime nations in every port of the known world. This daring and adventurous trait in the character of the Sailor leads to explorations far into the icy regions of the North, where eternal Winter reigns, or brings to the knowledge of the world the mysteries of the tropics. When perverted, this strange infatuation leads its victim to enlist under the black flag of the Pirate, who lies in wait on the great highway of the ocean for his defenceless prey. The author of the "OCEAN WANDERER" takes the reader through every phase of the Life of a Sailor, its romance, delights, perils and temptations on sea and on shore.

Young man! before you leave the comforts of a quiet home on shore for a life on the great deep, read the Adventures of the "OCEAN WANDERER!"

Fond mother! before you consign your darling boy to the tender mercies of the tyrants of the sea, read the experiences of the "OCEAN WANDERER!"

Fair maiden! before you consent to a separation from your lover for a long voyage at sea, to enable him to earn the means of making you comfortable and happy, read the Life of the "OCEAN WANDERER." Count well the cost before the fatal rubicon is passed.

How many gallant ships have left our ports, never to be heard of again—leaving those who had friends on board to watch long and anxiously for tidings of the missing vessel, while she was, perhaps, rent into a thousand pieces by the hurricane, typhoon, or some treacherous reef, far out in the sea—and her passengers and crew engulphed in the ocean depths! While fond hearts were living in the earnest, yet vain hope that absent friends would return home again, perhaps their bones were bleaching in the waters of the great deep! In these terrible disasters some are spared from sudden death to undergo the horrors of starvation and delirium on the fragments of the wreck, while others are cast on some barren and inhospitable island to end their days among savages, or in a terrible solitude, where no human foot had ever trod, and where no human voice was ever heard! The author of the "OCEAN WANDERER" vividly brings before his reader some of these startling adventures and terrible realities.

Many a good ship, after having been plundered—her crew and passengers butchered—has been scuttled and sent to the bottom of the ocean by the Freebooters, whose terrible motto is: "Dead men tell no tales!" In this connection the "OCEAN WANDERER" gives the adventures of the daughter of one of the merchant princes, whose ships were on every sea, which cannot fail to excite the most intense interest. Well may it be said that "mere Fiction pales before the lights and shades of Reality, when we venture out on the bosom of the great deep."

The adventures of the "OCEAN WANDERER," while they possess all the attraction of a work of fiction, cannot fail to be more widely read than any mere creation of the imagination. The author has participated in the events and scenes he describes. The incidents and adventures condensed in this work would have furnished the florid romancer with material for half a dozen novels, but the author has chosen rather to tell us just what he saw, omitting unimportant events, and grouping only those incidents which have an important connection in the career of the "OCEAN WANDERER." If this narrative imparts but half the interest to the general reader, produced by the reading of the manuscript, it will create a greater sensation than any work of its class published in many years.

QUERU'S COD LIVER OIL JELLY.

NEW-YORK, April 17, 1858.

DEAR SIR: Having seen in this day's New York Times, among the medical advertisements, one calling attention to

COD LIVER OIL JELLY,

I desire to know if it is the article introduced by you last year, and approved of by the New-York Academy of Medicine, or is it only an imitation?

An answer in the columns of the same paper will oblige more than one PHYSICIAN.

To E. QUERU.

In answer to the above letter, received by me the 17th inst., and signed "Physician," inquiring whether the article advertised in the New York Times of the same date, as Cod Liver Oil Jelly, was the article that I submitted Feb. 17, 1857, to the New-York Academy of Medicine, and approved of by that learned body in their sitting of June 3, 1857, I would say that it is not my article. I have since procured a sample of the so-called Cod Liver Oil Jelly, advertised by the manufacturer, and find it but a pasty mass, more resembling a pomade than a medicinal preparation. With all due thanks to "Physician" for his interest in this matter, I believe that no physician, after the slightest examination of my preparation, could, for a moment, be deceived by the article in question. My Jelly contains 85 per cent. of pure Norway Cod Liver Oil. Physicians are respectfully invited to call and examine my preparation. My pamphlets explanatory of the motives for using the Norway Oil, and containing the report of the Academy of Medicine, will be sent free to all who may desire it.

Respectfully,
E. QUERU No. 364 Canal-st.

DR. MAGNIN'S LUCINA CORDIAL, OR ELIXIR OF LOVE.—From the earliest ages stimulants have been resorted to as a means of reviving the energies of Nature. Of this fact, both sacred and profane history assure us. But the great difficulty has been to find an exhilarant which would produce the desired effect continuously, and entail no subsequent depression. This grand desideratum, sought for by every physician from the time of Galen to the present day, is accomplished at last! The LUCINA CORDIAL restores and permanently invigorates the broken-down system; nay, more, it replaces natural weakness with energy and strength. The desponding it revives the feeble it endows with vigor; and the cheerfulness and strength which it restores or creates, it also preserves. To the sickly wife it imparts that degree of vital force necessary to the crowning joy and great object of matrimony. To the debilitated husband it gives the nervous and muscular energy which characterizes manhood. In all cases of nervous diseases, low spirits, indigestion, liver complaint, indisposition to mental exertion, lassitude, emaciation, impotence, &c.—in fact, in all complaints, acute and chronic, which depress and weigh down the mind and body, it is an absolute, infallible specific. Ladies of delicate constitution, subject to those derangements peculiar to the feeble of their sex, will obtain immediate relief from its use.

Persons wishing the Lucina Cordial, by sending a remittance to Dr. MAGNIN, No. 203 Fulton-st., New-York, or to E. FLINT, druggist corner of 9th-av., and 28th-st., can have it safely packed and sent to any part of the world. Price $3 per bottle, or two bottles for $5.

DR. WATSON HAS FOR A LONG SERIES of years confined his attention to diseases of a certain class, in which he has treated a vast number of cases, without an instance of failure. The remedies are mild, and there is no interruption to business or change of diet. Separate consulting rooms.

Dr. WATSON'S WORK, THE CAUSE AND CURE, the only one which clearly explains the nature and mode of treatment of the venereal disease in its different forms: also Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness, and Premature Exhaustion—the result of early indiscretion, excess, or other causes. Anatomical plates of a superior kind, and drawings of every form of disease. Price $1. No. 55 Walker-st., a few doors west of Broadway.

$1,000 FORFEITED AND NO CHARGE UNLESS CURED.—Dr. HUNTER'S Red Drop cures when regular treatment of other physicians and all other remedies fail. It is your only reliance for a thorough cure in certain diseases. No. 3 Division-st., the only place now so well known for the very many extraordinary cures it has performed, without diet or hindrance from business, when all other remedies only drive the disease into the blood—$1 only. This secures the patient from secondary attacks, and is the only remedy on earth that does it.

RICORD'S PRACTICE.—C. D. HAMMOND, M. D., pupil of RICORD, of Paris, (who is the first living surgeon for diseases, &c., of the sexual system) and of Professors CARNOCHAN and MOTT, of this City, continues the practice of his specialty and of general medicine, at No. 61 Bleecker-st., 8th house east of Broadway, New-York. Consultations in English, French and by letter. Office hours from 9 to 1, and 5 to 8, evenings.

SURE CURE.—DR. WARD'S UNFORTUNATE'S FRIEND.—Sole reliance for permanent cure of private diseases. Dr. WARD invites all the afflicted and disappointed elsewhere to give him an early trial. Price $1. Cure guaranteed. Medical pamphlet gratis. Female diseases successfully treated. His monthly Pills, $1 per box, never fail of effect intended. Office No. 287 Canal-st., four doors east of Broadway.

REMOVAL.—DR. RALPH, AUTHOR OF THE Private Treatise, &c., has removed to No. 52 Bleecker-st., corner of Wesley-place, two blocks east of Broadway, where he is consulted confidentially or generally, as usual.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

Before Judge Betts.

At the opening of Court this morning, Marshal RYNDERS informed the Court that he had been required on behalf of the City to surrender the two rooms now occupied as court-rooms by the United States on the 1st of May, as they were required for the use of the State Courts. One of the rooms, however, could be temporarily retained for the District Court.

Judge BETTS authorized the Marshal to give up the room on Chambers-street, retaining the one which fronts on the Park, until the new accommodations shall be provided for the Federal Courts.

There will be but one of the Federal Courts in session here accordingly next month.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT, April 19.

Before Judge Ingersoll.

ASSAULT WITH A KNIFE.

William Kelly was put on trial this morning, charged with an assault upon the master of the ship Mary Bradford, with a knife. The case was once before tried, when the jury were unable to agree upon a verdict. But at this time the evidence was sufficiently clear to them to enable them to bring in a verdict of guilty, without leaving their seats.

Judge Stewart, who appeared for the prisoner, urged that there was a conflict between the parties, and the blow was given in fear of peril, and that this was a fair ground for giving all the lenity which the Court could show.

Judge INGERSOLL did not consider the case to have any mitigating circumstances, and sentenced him to imprisonment at hard labor for eighteen months and to pay a fine of $1.

SUPREME COURT—SPECIAL TERM.

Before the Hon. Justice Davies.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE JACOB H. MOTT FROM ARREST OR REDUCE THE AMOUNT OF BAIL DENIED.

The Union Bank vs. Jacob H. Mott.—Upon a motion, supported by the affidavit of the defendant and opposed by affidavits on behalf of the plaintiff, to vacate the order of arrest in this case, or, if this may not be, to reduce the amount of the bail ($141,000) upon which the defendant is held, His Honor delivered a lengthy decision, yesterday, denying the application with costs. The facts in the case, as presented by the affidavits, Judge DAVIES says, are: "that the defendant kept an account in the Union Bank from Jan. 1, 1849, to Feb. 1, 1853, in the name of Garret S. Mott, his brother, and that the moneys during that time were drawn out by the defendant on checks made by him, as attorney of Garret S. Mott. That for the period aforesaid there was drawn out on such checks $97,254 90 more than was deposited, and than was entered in the deposit-book by the receiving teller who received the deposits, and who testified that all the deposits received were so entered. On examining the ledger containing the accounts of the defendant with the bank, kept by Brotherson, it appears that in the ledger the deposits of the defendant were increased by false entries to the amount thus overdrawn by the defendant. The statement of these facts leads to the inevitable conclusion of the complicity of the defendant with Brotherson in reference to these entries, and his knowledge that the deposits made by him had been fradulently increased.

On the 4th of October, 1856, the defendant opened an account in his own name in the Bank, and from that time to March 10, 1858, he drew out of the Bank and there was paid to him on his own checks the sum of $44,331 88 more than he deposited. The deposits then increased to this sum by false and fraudulent entries made in the ledger by Brotherson, and it is impossible to doubt that the defendant had knowledge of such fraudulent increase. If any doubt could exist as to such knowledge, from the acts of the defendant, and which are clearly established, it is dispelled by the affidavit of Mrs. Brotherson. She shows, in contradiction of the statement made by the defendant, that he and Brotherson were on terms of considerable intimacy, and had business relations incompatible with the acquaintance which the defendant says he had with him."

"Mrs. Brotherson says that Brotherson frequently told her that he was well acquainted with the defendant Mott, and had had business transactions with him, in regard to Mott's business with the Union Bank; that Brotherson told her that he had got into a very serious difficulty at the Union Bank, owing to said Mott, and that said Mott had promised to extricate him when his mother should die, and he should come into property by that means. That he also told her that Mott had received all the money from the Union Bank, and that he was merely a tool in Mott's hands, and that Mott alone would help him out of the difficulty."

Lola Montez to be again Examined.

SUPREME COURT—SPECIAL TERM.—APRIL 19.

Before the Hon. Justice Davies.

David W. Jobson vs. Henry J. Raymond et al. It may be remembered that Mr. Jobson has sued the proprietors of the New-York Times for libel, in consequence of their publishing a notice warning persons to be on their guard against swindlers. Yesterday, Waldo Abbott, Esq., for the defendants, moved at Special Term, that a Referee be appointed to take the testimony of Mme. Lola Montez, to be used conditionally upon the trial. Mr. Abbott presented an affidavit, stating the nature of the action; that Mme. Lola Montez was to be examined, to prove the alleged bad character of the plaintiff, in mitigation of damages, and that she would probably leave the City before the trial of the cause could be had.

Mr. C. R. Schermerhorn, for the plaintiff, offered rebutting affidavits, but His Honor held that the application should be granted, as a matter of course, on the proper affidavit of the moving party. If Mme. Montez should be in the City at the time of the trial, she must be present and testify. He, therefore, refused to allow the counter affidavits to be read.

Mr. Abbott suggested ex-Judge Edmonds as Referee. Mr. Jobson and Mme. Montez being as fire and gunpowder, when they come together trouble was apt to ensue. Judge Edmonds had managed both parties once, and on that account he desired that he should try it again.

Mr. Schermerhorn objected to Judge Edmonds. Mr. Jobson and the Judge had some little differences between them, and on that account he opposed his name.

After some further conversation, it was agreed that the testimony should be taken by ex-Judge Birdseye. An order was made accordingly.

THE PAY OF THE OLD POLICE.

Richard Gambling vs. The Board of Police Commissioners.—Yesterday, Judge DAVIES granted an alternative mandamus commanding the defendants to pay the plaintiff the sum of $659 99, due him as salary, or show cause to the contrary on May 1. Gambling was formerly a municipal policeman in the Sixteenth Ward. He bases his claim for his salary on the ground that the proceedings of the Police Commissioners in discharging him from the force, were adjudged void by the Supreme Court, General Term—which judgment is still in full force.

LONG ISLAND.

The Late Wife-Murder in Navy-street—Coroner's Investigation.

Coroner SNELL, yesterday afternoon, commenced an investigation into the circumstances attending the death of ROSANNA KELLY, who was stabbed by her husband, JOHN KELLY, on Friday night last, at a house in Navy near Prospect-street. The following persons were sworn as Jurors:

John W. Norton, William Williams,
Joseph Kent, John Vandergan, Sr.,
Cornelius Vandergan, John Vandergan, Jr.,
Alfred Hortin.

Dr. John S. Young, sworn—I was called to see the deceased about half an hour after the injury was inflicted; Dr. Fairly was with me; we found six wounds—two in the abdomen, one on the right side near the hip bone, about half an inch externally; the second was a little to the left of the umbilicus; there was one wound on either thigh, about the middle, internal; the fifth wound was on the right hip; the sixth was on the palmer surface of the thumb; all were clear incised wounds made by some sharp cutting instrument; we probed the wound on the right side of the abdomen; the hemorrhage was checked when I saw her, but her clothes were deluged with blood; we found on the left of the abdomen that the omentum had protruded two or three inches; did not hear her say much, but she said her husband did it; we had her carried to the hospital.

Dr. Daniel Fairly was sworn, and confirmed the testimony of the previous witness.

Dr. Joseph C. Hutchinson, sworn—I am one of the surgeons at the Brooklyn City Hospital; I did not see the deceased till she was dead; I witnessed the post mortem examination; the wound a little above the navel and one-and-a half inches outside, was externally five-eighths of an inch in length, extending downwards one and a-half inches; it penetrated the cavity of the abdomen; the wound in the right side extending four and-a-half inches to the outside, and a little below the level of the navel, was oblique, slightly upward and inward for two and three-quarter inches and then entered the abdominal cavity; externally this wound was three-quarters of an inch in length. The other wounds were described by the witness; the death of the deceased, he said, was caused by the hemorrhage and shock produced by these wounds; the point of the knife (shown to witness) would have made such wounds—the point may have been broken off by the blade hitting the hip bone.

Dr. Isaac Stevens corroborated the testimony of the other medical witnesses, and presented a detailed statement of the ante and post mortem examinations, all the important points of which appear above.

Dr. James Allingham was sworn, and gave similar evidence.

John Beatty, sworn—I am an officer attached to the Second Precinct Police; I arrested James Kelly on Flushing-avenue near Capt. Hudson's house; he made no resistance; he was in charge of two men; I took him to the corner of Navy and Prospect streets where deceased was then lying; deceased told him, "You villian, you have murdered me;" I don't know what he said; I then locked him up; when I arrested the prisoner I said "you have committed a murder;" he said it served her right, the ——; I asked him what he had done with the instrument with which he inflicted the wounds; he told me to go and find it.

John Hogan testified that some boys told him that Kelly threw the knife over the navy-yard wall, and he went there and found it; he helped to arrest Kelly, who attempted to run away. [The knife was shown to the witness and identified.]

Michael Hallahan testified that he first caught Kelly; he saw him use the knife; he saw Kelly's hand raised to give the stab; he was standing close to the door leading to the kitchen; witness attempted to knock him down with an iron pot—then, seeing the knife, ran into the street and cried murder; he accused Kelly of the murder, but the latter made no reply.

Charles Ladley, sworn—I am a constable; I was present when the knife shown was found behind the Navy-Yard wall; it was within three feet of the wall; the knife was shut; there was blood upon the knife; a small boy, and a man named Hogan, were present when the knife was found; I took the knife to the Station-house.

Ann Cullen, sworn—I am sister of the deceased; deceased lived eleven years ago in Carrol street; her oldest boy will be thirteen next June; she and the prisoner have been married about sixteen years; they lived happily together till the oldest boy, John, was born—they have not lived happily since; the first cause of the difficulty was that a boarder spit on her foot one Sunday morning, and he was jealous of her ever afterwards; this was before the boy was born; he had a quarrel with her the same day, and would not let her have anything to eat; witness stated that the accused attempted to kill his wife several years ago, with a razor; on Thursday last Kelly came into my house and inquired for his wife; I told him she was in Bellevue Hospital; he said I lied; he inquired for his children; I told him they were at school; I saw no more of him that day; next day, Barney Rooney came in, and about half an hour afterwards Kelly came in; Barney shook hands with deceased and asked how she did; I never saw him before; she asked him when he saw "Jem;" he said Wednesday, in the Flatbush Hospital, and he said he was coming to the city soon; she said, "Do go and see if he is in the city," and he started to go; I have not seen him since; Kelly came in half an hour after this; he walked into the middle of the room, and bade me good day; "Rose," he said, "is not in Bellevue to-day?" "No," I said; "No, you ——," he replied; "Rose," said he, "where is your brat?" "I have it," she replied; "Can you make out that it is my child?" "Yes," she said; "You lie, you ——, it is Tom Rossin's;" Tom is fourteen years old; Kelly then said to her "Can you swear it is mine?" she said that she would; Rose was then standing at the ironing table; he said he owned four of the children, but the fifth he did not own; he had his right hand in his bosom when he came in, and kept it there all the time until he began to use the knife; deceased said, "Jemmy, you have something in your breast for me;" "No, Rosa Mack, I haven't;" she then turned to the horse to put away a piece she had been ironing; Kelly then gave a spring towards the door, thinking that I would open the door for her to get out; "Come, (with an oath,) you got to take it now;" he caught her by the neck, pushed her against the door and commenced stabbing her; he stabbed her once in the abdomen, when I tried to seize his arms, thinking that he had a pistol; he then said, "by ——, you shall have some, too;" the last blow he gave her was on the hip; she only gave one scream, and that was at the first blow; a man named McCormick was outside of the house at the time; as I went out after the stabbing, some one knocked him down with a stone; he got up and hurried away; he was knocked down for striking those who were attempting to arrest Kelly as he passed out of the house; the last words of my sister to me were, "Take care of the children, and don't send them to Flatbush, and have Rooney McCormick taken up—Barney had set him on."

Hannah McGee, sworn—I was in the room at the time of the murder; when I went in Kelly was standing in the middle of the floor; he was speaking to his wife; I did not notice what he said; he had his right hand on his breast; I went to the door and said to a neighbor that Kelly and his wife might live together again; I then heard the screams; at first I could not open the door; pushing it a second time, I was just able to slip in; no man followed me in; I saw no man but Kelly; he had his wife by the neck and was striking her with his right hand; I could not see what he had in his hand; I caught him by the head and hit him with a piece of broom-handle, and he let go of her and jumped towards Mrs. Conlan; his hand was raised to stab her; when he saw that she was standing still he went at his wife again; I pushed the deceased on to the stoop, when Kelly went out and struck her then on the back; when Kelly first came in, McCormick was with him; McCormick passed by the house and stood on the corner, two doors below; saw him there while I was talking at the door, before the stabbing; I was talking with Mr. Hamilton at the time.

The inquest was here adjourned till to-day.

Brooklyn Items.

Rumors having been in circulation to the effect that Alderman SCHOLES had written letters before his late election, pledging himself to a future course, concerning certain local questions, inconsistent with his past conduct in the Board of Aldermen, the Alderman in question wrote to Mr. COCHROFT, the unsuccessful candidate for the Alderman's baton, asking him either to deny the statement that he had any such letters in his possession, or to publish the letters. To this Mr. COCHROFT returns that the letters are private property. Alderman SCHOLES replies: "But I deny that I have written any letters or made any pledges inconsistent with my previous course in the Common Council; and when you say I have written such letters, you utter a 'deliberate falsehood,' and if you have any such letters in your possession they were not written by me."

A suit concerning the Cornelius Heeney estate one of the largest in Brooklyn, was before the Circuit Court yesterday. Mr. HEENEY willed a large amount of property to the Brooklyn Benevolent (R. C.) Society, and the will is contested by several of his relatives on the ground that undue influence was used. The case has been before the Court for a long time.

The Police during the 48 hours ending yesterday morning made 79 arrests, and during the same period 64 persons were accommodated with lodgings in the different Station-houses.

A young man named JAMES S. WHEATON, 22 years of age, has been missing from his father's residence in the Ninth Ward, since Saturday. It is feared that he has met with foul play.

Hon. JACOB BROWN delivered an address last evening in the Athenæum before the Lexington Chapter O. U. A.

JOSEPH NEWMAN, who attempted to stab a lady in the Mission Church, Sunday evening, will be examined to-day before Justice FREES.

A motion, made in the City Court for a new trial in the case of W. H. MERSHON vs. the Brooklyn City Railroad Company, has been denied. The jury rendered a verdict in this case, it will be remembered, in favor of plaintiff, adjudging that the latter should recover $4,000.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A stevedore, named GEORGE GOLDEN, doing business at No. 113 South street, while on a visit to Staten Island on Sunday, was suddenly taken sick at the residence of Mr. JOHN SHORT, and during the night died. Disease—congestion of the brain.

MONDAY, April 19—P. M.

The Official Averages of the Banks in the City of New-York, for the past week, ending Saturday, April 17, the particulars of which are advertised by each bank separately in another part of this paper, present in the aggregate the following changes from the previous weekly average of April 10:

Increase in Loans	$497,273
Increase in Specie	1,157,013
Decrease in Circulation	55,633
Increase in Undrawn Deposits	1,330,162

Including the Clearing-house operations of the week, which average $17,327,431, and to be deducted from the gross deposits, and including also the Sub-Treasury statement of Saturday last, the following is the general comparison with the previous exhibit and also with the movement this time last year.

COMPARATIVE RECAPITULATION.

	April 18, 1857.	April 17, 1858.	April 10, 1858.
Capital	$59,631,000	$66,600,000	$66,600,000
Loans	114,398,174	111,344,891	110,847,618
Specie	12,061,972	33,193,449	32,036,436
Circulation	8,770,828	7,190,176	7,245,809
Gross Deposits	96,461,417	95,448,456	93,596,100
Exchanged	28,914,176	17,327,431	16,775,237
Undrawn	67,547,239	78,121,025	76,790,863
In Sub-Treasury	15,039,338	3,841,577	4,969,128

The statement in the article of Specie is the largest ever reported. The average reserve now stands $33,193,449. The increase since last Monday is $1,157,013. The Undrawn Deposits are rapidly approaching eighty million dollars. The present line is ahead of anything ever yet shown by the New-York Banks. With all this increased ability to discount, the statement shows the inconsiderable addition of $497,273 to the Loan column, and this, we have reason to believe, is made up of outside investment, rather than mercantile paper. The new week opens on an easy and dull market for Money. The rates of interest on demand loans and on short paper are now more generally 4@5 ₱ cent. than last week at 5@6 ₱ cent. The unemployed bank balances to the credit of the Discount Brokers and private banking-houses are unusually heavy. In Foreign Exchange, a leading banking firm were free drawers to-day at 109 ₱ cent. on London, although in the early part of the day there was a disposition in other quarters to advance the rate for choice bills to 109½ ₱ cent. Francs are 5.17½@5.16¼. The first mail for the Boston steamer closes at the New-York Post-Office as early as 11 o'clock A. M. to-morrow. A second mail will be made up, to go by the steamboat train, at 3:45 P. M.

The Stock Market was not active on the dealings to-day, but quite firm in prices, and closing stronger than on Saturday on all the leading speculative Shares. New-York Central, cash contracts, left off 88⅛@88¼; Erie, 24⅛@24¼; Reading, 46; Michigan Southern, 23⅞; Milwaukee, 30; Panama, 106⅞; Galena, 88¼; Illinois Central Bonds 88 ₱ cent., and Missouri Sixes, 83 ₱ cent. The amount of business through the day was not large but notwithstanding the apparent absence of Commission or outside orders, the list is well supported throughout, and Stocks are too scarce, in proportion to Money, on the Street, to encourage short sellers to increase their contracts very boldly. The inclination of the prices in the afternoon was to a further advance.

A ten ₱ cent. first-mortgage loan is offered by the Saline Coal and Manufacturing Company of Illinois, (the property situate on the Ohio River, near Shawneetown,) through Messrs. MORSE & Co. No. 41 William-street. Particulars in their advertisement, on another page.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the LaCrosse and Milwaukee Railroad Co., held on Friday, the 16th inst., at Albany, JACKSON HADLEY, Esq., of Milwaukee, resigned the office of Secretary and also of Director of the Company. Mr. L. L. DOTY acts as Treasurer and Secretary at Milwaukee, and Judge D. V. N. RADCLIFF as Assistant Secretary and Treasurer at Albany.

Money Circular for Europe.

NEW-YORK, Monday, April 19, 1858.

Since our advices of 12th inst., the stock market has partially lost the activity which we then noticed. The speculative circle appears to have again become more contracted, and the number of operators is limited. Capitalists participate but little in this movement, and the few transactions in State stocks and in investment securities indicate that notwithstanding the abundance of money they keep aloof. The fluctuations in State stocks and in most Railroad bonds have been very trifling, though they are generally a little lower in price. In Railroad shares there is a more marked decline. State Stocks—The only ones that have given rise to business of any importance are Missouri 6s with a decline of ¼; Tennessee 6s with a decline of ⅛; and Virginia 6s, which close at an advance of ¼; California 7s, old, have been done at 83. In City Bonds we have heard of no transactions besides the sale of a few Memphis 6s, guaranteed by State of Tennessee, at a slight decline, and of some St. Louis 6s, municipal, without change in rate. In Railroad Bonds the movement has been very moderate. Illinois Central Constructions, after having risen ¾, close at ¼ decline; the Freeland Bonds are without change; Erie 7s of 1871 have been done from 42 to 44⅛, and the 4th mortgage bonds at 68. The other issues have altered but little. LaCrosse & Milwaukee Land Grants have advanced ⅛, and Milwaukee & Mississippi 2d mortgage 10s declined 1 ₱ cent. The other issues of this company remain perfectly inactive. Money continues very abundant at from 4@7, but most generally from 5@6 ₱ cent. for short loans. Paper above bank rates, is scarce.

Memoranda.

A telegraph dispatch received this afternoon, dated St. Johns, N. F., April 16, via Boston 19th, states that the Br. brig Bloomer arrived at Placentia Bay on the 16th, after having been five weeks in the ice. Passengers and crew all well.

SHIP RAVENEL.—A report recently published concerning this ship, would lead to the belief of her having suffered damage on her outward passage. We learn from letters received from the Captain that although heavy weather was experienced, she has not been injured in the least. She has just been reclassed A No. 1 at French Lloyds.

The ship Black Hawk at New-Orleans, reports having been compelled by bad weather experienced on the Bahama Banks, to lay at anchor for two days.

Disasters, &c.

LOSS OF SHIP KENNEBEC.—The following particulars of the cause which led to the abandonment of the ship Kennebec, from Liverpool for Mobile, are given by Capt. Curtiss: "We left Liverpool Feb. 12, and went out the North Channel, and getting clear of the same on the morning of the 6th. From that time until the morning of the 17th, we encountered nothing but heavy gales from S. to S. W. On the morning of the 17th, when in lat. 40 50, lon. 31, the weather looking very bad, the glass down to 29 and still falling, I wore ship to the S. E. and hove her to. At 11 A. M. she was struck by a hurricane, accompanied by two flashes of lightning, the first merely jarring the ship; the second struck the ship under the forward part of the poop, instantly killing two men, and started the whole forward part of the poop clear of the deck. After getting the corpse into the poop I returned on deck, just at which time all the spars went over the side, leaving nothing but the foreyard, and that in a crippled condition. All of the wreck worked under the ship's bottom, striking her very heavy. We went to work cutting away, and getting all clear about 4 P. M., when we found the ship, as far as we could see, badly chafed and cut up. We could not tell what was done under her, where the heaviest of the striking was. Sounded the pumps and found two feet water. Endeavored to get the crew to the pumps, which was impossible while the corpses were in the poop, and after having consigned the corpses to the deep it was almost impossible to keep them at the pumps without one of the officers standing over them; making but little progress on the water, the ship rolling heavily at the time. After we lost our spars we had a succession of gales until the morning of the 23d, when it moderated, with a heavy sea running, the weather looking very bad, and the glass falling. At 7 A. M. made a sail standing to the westward. The poop was working very bad, and the deck breaking up about the mainmast and five feet of water in the hold. I then gave up all hope of saving the ship, and thought it a useless risk of life to remain on the ship any longer. The weather being so that we could use our boats—the first time since we were dismasted—I bore away for the sail, which proved to be the ship W. F. Schmidt, Capt. Sears, of New-York, bound to New Orleans, who came near us and hove to, sending his boats to assist us, our boats being badly stove in launching them. We succeeded in getting on board the W. F. Schmidt without any further accident. In the meantime the gale had increased so much that we were fearful that the last boat would not reach the ship in safety. That night it blew a heavy gale, which would probably have been the last of all of us, had not the ship come to our relief."

BUSINESS CHANCES.

TO CAPITALISTS.

A gentleman in this City, after lengthy experimenting and with great cost, has at length succeeded in producing an article still imported to the amount of millions of dollars. As a proof of the importance of this discovery, the following will serve: Napoleon the great decreed, July 4, 1810, by an order, an award of $500,000 francs to any one who should, either by mixing said article with other ingredients, or by applying it to peculiar advantage, reduce its formerly used quantity to one half, yet, and at the same time, not diminish the intensity and permanency of its properties. The advertiser has, by his discovery, now accomplished this. Millions of dollars can be made with it in a short time. The producing of one pound costs only 50 cents, and is of the same quality as an article which pays in the market $1 30. Only capitalists will address, with real name, PIERRE LOUIS, Times Office.

N. B.—Samples readily submitted to examination.
